Vinson Supports Huge Carrier

Aids Navy In Heated Dispute

Would Resume Work On Ship

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A navy weapons expert told Congress today Russia likely has guided missiles able to find and knock down bombers above 40,000 feet.

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Rep. Vinson (D.-Ga.) threatened today to override Defense Secretary Johnson and press for construction of a super aircraft carrier capable of launching naval atom bombers

Vinson, powerful chairman of the House armed service committee, said he might ask Congress to authorize the Navy to resume construction of its 188 million dollar supercarrier, "U.S.S. United States."

Johnson ordered work on the supercarrier stopped last spring

Vinson's disclosure coincided with a charge by Johnson that "the cancellation of construction plans for a naval supercarrier has been twisted into a charge of persecution against the navy."

WOULD TESTIFY

Johnson asked Vinson for an opportunity to testify in the hearings before the committee and was advised that he would be called as soon as the navy completed its case in the interservice feud.

The defense secretary advised the Georgian that he would like to have testify before the hearings ended Gen Dwight Eisenhower, former President Hoover, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and other members of the JCS. Army General J. Lawton Collins, Air Force General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, and Admiral Louis Denfeld, naval chief of operations.

Vinson, a strong air force supporter, called for anew evaluation of the nation's defense plans.

The Georgian, patently impressed by the navy's attack on the air force's "atom blitz" concept of warfare, said he had changed his views about the need for a super carrier in view of Russian possession of the atom bomb.

He stated:

"Now that Russia has the atom bomb, everything is changed. We must re-evaluate conditions in the light of this new development."

Paper Denies Charges

Dismissal of an anti-trust suit filed against the Lorain Journal by the U. S. Justice department was sought today in an answer filed in Federal District court in Cleveland.

The answer was filed by the Lorain Journal company, S. A Horvitz, the Lorain paper's publisher; Isadore Horvitz, president and treasurer of the company; D. P. Self, business manager of the paper; and Frank Maloy, its editor.

The answer to the Justice department's suit contains denials of any law infractions charged against the newspaper and calls upon the court to refuse to issue an injunction sought by the Justice department.

Hearing on a temporary injunction has been set for Nov. 15 in the Federal District court at Cleveland.

The Mansfield News-Journal is under the same ownership as the Lorain Journal.

NOT INTERSTATE

In answer to a long list of government charges, the Lorain Journal and its officers deny that the Lorain paper is in interstate commerce and subject to the Sherman Anti-Trust act, under which the civil action was brought.

The answer to the government's charges also asserts that the officers of the Lorain newspaper did not engage in any combination or conspiracy among themselves or with any other persons to restrain, monopolize or attempt to monopolize interstate commerce or trade as charged in the government's complaint.

While brought by the department of justice, the complaint

Water Plant Bids Sought

Council Action Due Wednesday

The city's $500,000 water treatment plant in the Clear Fork project will be the subject of a special meeting of city council set for 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Council will act on legislation authorizing Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison to advertise for bids for the construction of the plant.

The plans for the final structure in the Clear Fork project were completed recently by Jennings-Lawrence company, engineers, and then were approved by the state health department.

The water treatment plant will be erected on the Alta-Lexington road, a few hundred feet from the new main pumping station which is now in operation

The plant will receive water from the Clear Fork reservior and filter and purify it for use in the city. The plant will have a capacity of 7½ million gallons of water a day.

The contracts for the water treatment plant are the final major ones to be awarded in the $2,450,000 water project. Engineers estimated recently the Clear Fork water system would be in operation "sometime in 1950."

Vets' Cash Boost OK'd

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A bill raising veterans compensation and disability payments by more than $112,000,000 a year was signed by President Truman yesterday.

The Veterans administration estimated that 2,024,000 veterans of the first and second world wars and of the Spanish American war would be affected under the section liberalizing disability and death payments. Backers of the bill contended the increases are necessary to meet the increased cost of living.

World War One veterans with disabilities legally presumed to be service-connected would get full compensation instead of the present 75 per cent.

Provisions of the bill applicable to veterans of the three wars increase the length of time for which payments may be made for arrested cases of tuberculosis; and create a new disability schedule based on $150 monthly for total disability and $15 for 10 per cent disability. The old rate was $135 and $13.80.

Crash Injures School Pupils

NORWALK — (UP) — Seven school children and a truck driver were injured today when an auto transport truck smashed into the rear of a school bus near here.

The state highway patrol said the truck, driven by James L. Barron, 29, of Ida, Mich., and the rear of the school bus were demolished. The bus was loading pupils for Townsend rural school when the accident occurred.

Barron was seriously injured, the parol said. The injured children were treated at Norwalk Memorial hospital.

Robbery Probe Stymied

Authorities Wait 'Break'

Richland county authorities today waited for a "break" in the flight of two Mansfield reformatory fugitives who tied up and robbed an aged farm couple and their daughter near Ganges Sunday night and then fled with their auto.

Sheriff E. P Long said investigation was "almost at a standstill" since no word of either the missing car or the fugitives has been received.

The sheriff added that the two fugitives left no fingerprints at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hollenbaugh and that no one in the vicinity reported seeing the pair. Suspicion that a third man accompanied the holdup was still unsubstantiated today.

However, the descriptions of the two men who forced their way into the home were reported as "very similar" to the descriptions of Julius Faulkenberg, 27, and Frederick L. Shaver, 23, who escaped the OSR farm late Friday.

Acting OSR Superintendent George J. Allarding said the description of a "tall, slim man with gaunt face and light hair" might easily be Faulkenberg. Shaver is believed to be the "short, stocky man, with swarthy complexion and dark, bushy hair." Both descriptions were given by the Hollenbaugh couple and their daughter, Mary.

The two intruders, who demanded entrance to the home of the Hollenbaugh daughter, wore the red-striped trousers of OSR trusties After binding Hollenbaugh, 75, his wife, 71, and his daughter, 48, to chairs with ropes, the two searched the house from which they took $14 in cash and two pair of overalls, dark blue serge trousers and a blue wool jacket. The "short, stocky man" was reported to have drawn on a pair of Hollenbaugh's overalls, patched on the right knee.

Seek Charge In 5% Case

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Chairman Hoey (D) N. C., of the Senate "five percenter" investigating subcommittee, said today that the government is seeking a perjury indictment against John Maragon.

Hoey said the Department of Justice was acting on his suggestion that Maragon be prosecuted. Hoey made his suggestion to U. S. Attorney George Fay.

Maragon, "good friend" of White House presidential aide Harry Vaughan, also faces possible tax evasion charges. A subcommittee staff member said the latter charges are still being investigated by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Hoey, announcing he has called a closed session of the subcommittee Wednesday morning, said Fay conferred with him recently and added.

"I don't want to speak for Mr Fay, but he indicated to me that he will seek an indictment against Mr. Maragon. I instructed the staff to turn over all our records on the case to him."

537 Registrants Beat Deadline

There were 537 registrants at the board of elections yesterday, the last day, voters could register for the November election, Board of Elections Clerk Thomas R. Zeigler said today.

The total number of persons registered was not tabulated yet today. Zeigler said four persons already voted by absentee ballot.

OK Strike Plan

TOLEDO — (INS) — Some 500 local CIO union officers in plants in 15 northwestern Ohio communities last night approved a strike plan offered by Richard T.T. Gosser, international vice president of the United Auto Workers.

BLASTS HUGE BOMBER—Appearing before the House Armed Services committee, which is hearing the bitter Navy-Air Force dispute in Washington, Lt. Cmdr E. W Harrisan (left), chief of the Navy Aeronautics bureau radar branch, swears that the Air Force's B-39 bomber would be spotted by radar even when flying at 40,000 feet altitude. Sitting with Harrison as the Navy continued its all-out attack on the Air Force's "atomic blitz" strategy are (from left) Amd. A. W. Radford, Pacific Fleet commander; Adm W. 'Operation Leaves'

City Trucks Start Four-Day Pick-Up

The Mansfield street department will consolidate its forces and open "Operation Leaves" tomorrow.

Eight trucks—the street department's full force—will start collecting fallen foliage in the west section of the city tomorrow, Davis said.

The crew will move generally from west to south to east to north, Davis said. The job will be completed Saturday.

"Only leaves that are in the street will be collected," Davis said. He advised persons who rake their yards to put the leaves in a container and set it in the street along the curb.

"The trucks will cruise the city and work at the worst spots," he said.

All other functions of the street department will be curtailed for the remainder of the week, he added.

The collection this week was termed "a rough pick-up" by the street department superintendent. A second pick-up will be made later in the season, Davis said.

"The street department has been deluged with telephone calls asking when the leaves were going to be collected," he added.

It seems the leaves raked off yards are blowing back a few minutes later. There is also the danger of the leaves catching fire. And, the city wants the leaves off the streets because with a rain they clog up the sewers

Arms Bill Speeded Up

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congressional leaders slapped a "rush" tag today on President Truman's request for $1,314,010,000 to finance the foreign military aid program.

They hope to draft and pass, in time to adjourn this session of Congress next Saturday, a bill providing the dollars to breathe life into the aid program recently authorized by Congress.

The House appropriations committee called a closed-door hearing to consider the President's request. Invited to testify were Secretary of Defense Johnson and General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the appropriations committee told newsmen the hearings will end tomorrow. There is no need for detailed testimony he said, because the House foreign affairs committee has printed the voluminous transcript of testimony it took when the program was authorized.

The President's request sent to Congress late yesterday was for $814,010,000 in cash and $500,000,000 in contract authority to finance the plan to furnish military aid to nations outside the Soviet iron curtain

Violence Strikes

WARREN—(UP)—One house was dynamited and six others stench bombed here today in renewed violence in the 19-week strike of the CIO United Electrical Workers against the Taylor-Winfield plant. Four shotgun blasts were fired over the roof of an eighth residence.

Rocket Hits 5,000 M.P.H.

PASADENA, Cal — (INS) — A rocket attained a velocity of more than 5,000 miles per hour at White Sands, N. M., several months ago, breaking all rocket speed records

This was disclosed today by Prof. H J Stewart of California Institute of Technology's jet propulsion laboratory at a seminar on guided missiles for aeronautics students.

Prof. Stewart reported the missile, known as "Wac Corporal" and designed at Caltech, was clocked at 83 miles a minute, just under a mile and a half a second, or slightly less than twice as fast as German V-2 rockets

Moch Given Cabinet Bid

Asked To Form French Government

PARIS — (UP) — Jules Moch, the tough socialist minister of the interior who smashed the communist-led strike waves of 1947 and 1948, was asked to form a new French government today.

Moch asked for time to think it over, apparently because of bitter opposition from the right. He emerged from a conference with President Vincent Auriol shortly before noon and said he would give a definite answer tonight.

Moch was expected to make another attempt to persuade the rightists, led by former Premier Paul Reynaud, to join in a new coalition government replacing that of former Premier Henri Queuille.

Moch is hated by the extreme left for sending the republican security guards into striker-held plants and mines to break the strikes which brought France to the verge of economic chaos last year.

But the 56-year-old socialist claims the move saved France from the fate of Czechoslovakia.

He was a lawyer, naval engineer journalist and World War I hero before entering public life.

Banks, State Offices Close

City Marks Columbus Day Tomorrow

The 457th anniversary of the discovery of America will be observed here tomorrow by the closing of all Mansfield banks and loan companies, by special observance by the Knights of Columbus and by programs in city schools. State offices will also be closed.

The closing of the doors of all city banks during the entire day is in keeping with an annual custom. A few bank employes expect to catch up with back work in their offices. For most employes, however, it will be a holiday

C. N. Sutton, executive vice president of the Richland Trust company expects to spend the holiday in Cincinnati, where he will attend the annual sauerkraut dinner of the Fifth-Third Union Trust company

Both the South Side branch and the Lexington branch of the Mansfield Savings Turst National bank will join with the "parent" bank in closing their doors for the day

Although city schools will remain open teachers have arranged programs which will commemorate the sailing of the three Spanish ships under the young Italian explorer, Christopher Columbus. The day lends itself well to art work and displays for city school children

At the Knights of Columbus home, Sherman avenue, a card party will be held, starting at 8 p. m. Members, their wives and friends, will be guests of the occasion. Following card games there will be a buffet supper and prizes, James Carrigan, commander of the Mansfield chapter said today

Philip Rene, Michael Augustine, Earl Roberts and Elmer Smith are in charge of arrangements.

Truck Blaze Embarrasses Fire Laddies

PROVIDENCE, R. I —(UP)— Ladder Company 10 will be a long time living this one down:

On a practice run to Wayland Square to stage a demonstration in connection with Fire Prevention Week, a battery cable short circuit set the truck on fire

A spectator pulled an alarm and three hose companies and a ladder truck responded while Ladder 10 put out its own fire.

Tough Job Confronting Mediators

Ching Plans New Steel, Coal Talks

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — The government's conciliation service has taken on the biggest job in its history—trying to settle the twin steel and coal strikes.

Before the week is out U. S. Conciliation Director Cyrus Ching, will meet separately with leaders of the striking CIO United Steelworkers and industry leaders.

At the same time, the conciliation director will watch developments in the coal strike. It was Ching who got John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, and coal industry operators to agree to go back to the bargaining table tomorrow.

Neither the steel industry nor Philip Murray, president of the steel workers, had any comment after Ching announced yesterday the government was stepping into the steel walkout for the fourth time. Before the strike started 11 days ago the government made three futile peace efforts.

Murray went ahead with plans to deliver pep talks to his 454,000 strikers. The first talk was held today at Youngstown, Ohio.

That mighty industrial town has been hit hard by the steelworkers' walkout to support demands for free pensions and insurance.

Ching's brief statement in Washington that he is setting up "separate and informal conferences" with leading steel companies and union leaders added:

"The purpose of these meetings will be to consider the impediments which exist to a prompt settlement and to ascertain in what ways the service might best contribute to such a settlement.

"The conferences will be held at mutually convenient dates and places, which will be announced to the press from time to time."

$200 Bills Trap Sailor, Wife's Mad

NEW YORK — (INS) — Chief Stratton, 49, told New York police yesterday that he had been robbed of his life savings of $32,000 while riding on a subway

The money, he explained nervously, was in $200 bills which he had drawn out of his navy savings account at his wife's insistence

Gently, police pointed out there are no $200 bills, and asked for the true story. Stratton broke down explaining that he had bet on horse races the money he told his wife he was saving, and that it had finally caught up with him

Police released him to face the irate Mrs. Stratton

Loan Company Assets Mount

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The president of the Ohio Savings and Loan league said today that assets of savings and loan associations in the state have increased a hundred million dollars during the past year.

Lloyd L. Cunningham of Bellaire made that report at the opening session of the league's 61st annual convention. He said Ohio Savings and Loan association assets have reached slightly more than $1,000,000,000 —" the largest amount in the history of the industry in this state."

Some 1,200 officers, directors and key employes of more than 600 savings and loan associations are attending the meeting.

SHE'S 65 TODAY

Crop Toll Reaches Millions

Heavy Rains, Wind Reported

(By United Press)

A mighty storm with hurricane-strength winds left 27 persons dead in the midwest and west today as it roared north into the Canadian wilderness.

Gales that sometimes hit 100-miles-an-hour lashed the plains and Great Lakes yesterday as warm air from the south collided with strong breezes tearing down from the Canadian Rockies.

Heavy rains swept vast sections, pouring tons of water from thick cloud banks. Temperatures, which had been setting new highs for the season, tumbled as the wind and rain struck.

The warm southern air turned the storm back to the north and today it was rushing into the area surrounding Hudson Bay.

The storm brought no relief, however, to the sweltering east where temperatures soared toward record maximums for the second day in a row.

The midwest, assessing millions of dollars in damage to crops and buildings from winds that hit 100 miles an hour, had normal autumn weather with a band of showers stretching from Missouri northeasterly to Michigan.

PLUNGE INTO LAKE

Five of the persons killed in yesterday's bad weather were airmen who met death when their B-17 bomber crashed into Great Salt Lake after encountering "terrible weather" over Salt Lake City.

At West Point, Cal., seven persons including five small children died when an overheated woodstove set their house afire. The stove had been overloaded with fuel to ward off the autumn chill.

Six persons were killed at Meade, Kan., when a Rock Island passenger train plunged through a trestle that had been weakened by a rain-swollen creek. One child was still listed as missing in the accident.

At Chicago, a small girl was killed when the screaming winds knocked a rotten tree into a schoolyard.

The remainder of the victims were killed in similar accidents. Almost a score of others were injured by falling cornices, smashed windows and toppled chimneys.

The winds reached their peak of 100 miles an hour in Minnesota and all roads in the southern half of the state were declared unsafe because of fallen trees and wires. Airlines halted traffic for a time.

City Greets Cool Spell

A comparatively cool spell moved into Mansfield today on the heels of an 82-degree high posted yesterday.

The weatherman looked at the cloud cast skies and freely predicted further temperature drops with today's high pegged in the high seventies.

Meanwhile, records for October heat were cracked all over the state yesterday Cleveland's temperatures of 86 broke a ten-year record, while Perry (88), Youngstown (87), and Columbus (87), all posted new marks.

Mansfield's high and low yesterday were 82 and 68, with cooler weather predicted for tonight and tomorrow.

"Possible scattered showers over most of the state," the weatherman added.

Mansfield Holds Eighth Place In AP Poll

Stine's Sports Slants

By CHARLEY STINE

Three 1948 Madison Rams are getting rave notices with the Bowling Green freshman football team, according to reports emanating from the northwestern part of the state. Madison captain Don Morris is a regular BeeGee tackle while Fred Durig is regarded by Coach Bruce Bellard as the fastest fullback. Bowling Green had 161 freshman out for the grid sport but kept only 25. Jim Brightbill, Ram end last year, also made the squad.

Joe Miller, the former Madison high football and basketball star received a broken nose the other day "coaching" the Ram reserve team.

Joe was trying to explain a hand-off play to a sub halfback and got into the quarterback slot to do the pivoting himself. He took the hand-back from center, pivoted and boom! The half back forgot to swerve. Miller who had to resign as Butler coach because of lack of a teaching certificate, is taking his practice teaching at Madison and will be there all during the first semester.

★

Bill Eccles, former Friendly House boxer, has been elected president of the freshman class at Southwestern University, Waxahachie, Texas. Eccles is studying for the ministry and has given up his amateur boxing career. He was at one time regarded as the most promising in the F-H stable.

Football record books report that at times referees have been known to slip and give college teams five downs. But a new record was set at the Shelby-Madison reserve game Thursday when Shelby had seven downs and still couldn't make the ten yards. A long loss set the Whippets back and then after a couple of gains the official apparently looked at the wrong set of line sticks and signaled for a first. Already having had three downs, Shelby then tried three more and punted.

★

The Mansfield Rangers have the four youngest cheerleaders in town in a quartette of little stairsteps which did some impromptu yelling in front of the stands last week. They were the four daughters of Ranger Coach Jimmy Lymper.

One of the best "school spirit" stories we have heard in a long time concerns Plymouth Coach Dick McMullen and his injury-riddled football team. Injuries had cut the squad to 18 when a new candidate—Bud DeVeny—reported the other day.

"I've never played football" said the boy, "and I don't imagine I'm much good. But I hear you're pretty short-handed I thought maybe I could help."

McMullen says he's now one of the hardest workers on the squad.

Tygers Get 12th Place Tie In INS

Mansfield failed to gain substantial ground in Ohio football ratings by its 20-0 win over Warren last week, two polls of state sports writers showed today.

The Tygers maintained their eighth place position of last week in the Associated Press poll and moved up from a tie for 18th to a tie for 12th in International News Service balloting.

8. Mansfield, 136	Wooster, 60
9. Wooster, 127	Findlay, 45
10. Sandusky, 126	Middletown, 42

Other vote getters:

Associated Press—Circleville 125; Toledo Waite 120; Middletown 118; Fremont Ross, Marion Harding, Lancaster and Newark 116; Upper Arlington 94; Louisville 94; Cincinnati Purcell 92; Grandview 92; Springfield 67; Zanesville 66; Toledo Central Catholic 66; Struthers 65; New Philadelphia and Cincinnati Withrow 51; Akron West 53; Hamilton Catholic 32; Vermilion 32; Cuyahoga Falls, Warren St. Marys, Canton Central Catholic 11.

Massillon increased its margin in the number one spot while Canton McKinley held on solidly in second. Chief gains were made by Toledo Libbey, Martins Ferry, Findley and Lakewood. Lakewood 10th in the AP poll last week, vaulted over Mansfield into fifth place with a 39-6 conquest over Elyria while Martins Ferry, ninth last week, took over seventh by beating Mingo Junction, 40-0. Libby blasted Toledo Waite, 3-0, and went from 11th to fourth, while Findlay handed Fremont Ross its first loss and jumped from 14th to sixth place, in the AP voting.

Nearby Wooster and Jeff DeHaven's Sandusky team continued to roll closer to the top brackets. Wooster moved into ninth place in the AP poll and eighth in the INS while Sandusky is 10th in AP and 11 in INS.

Senior high's opponent of this week, Euclid fails to rate mention in any of the polls. However, Zanesville rates 23rd in AP and was one of Euclid's early victims. By the same token, Zanesville beat Newark, 13-0, last Saturday yet Newark was still voted into 17th place.

Toledo Waite and Springfield, Mansfield's two last opponents of the season, both dropped this week. Waite is now 12th and seventh while Springfield is 22nd in AP and is not mentioned in INS. Kent Roosevelt, the other remaining Senior high did not get a vote.

SEEKS THIRD TITLE—"Tex," grand champion winner for the past two years in the spotted horse division of the Ohio Western Horse association's Fall Round-Up, will seek his third title at Ashland Oct. 15 and 16. Notre Dame Takes Lead In College Grid Voting

The second Associated Press nationwide poll of the season shows the midwest, led by Notre Dame, and the South each with three places among the top 10 teams. The far West had two, while the East and Southwest each had one.

Notre Dame, second in the first poll last week, moved to the fore but Army, thanks to its 21-7 conquest of Michigan on Saturday, made the most spectacular jump—from seventh to second.

Michigan was spilled from first to seventh. The sports writers and sportscasters, who gave the Wolverines 34 first place votes last week, awarded them none this time. However, Michigan got enough other ballots to remain in the upper 10.

Notre Dame, victorious over Purdue Saturday, 35-12, this week, received 67 first place votes for 1,489 points. Army, with 58 firsts and 1,459, got within 30 points of the lead. The Cadets represent the only eastern threat for top honors.

The southwest is represented in third position by Oklahoma. There were no changes in the latest voting for third, fourth, fifth and sixth place, with Oklahoma being followed by Tulane, Minnesota and North Carolina.

Back of no longer invincible Michigan in eighth place is Kentucky, whose 25-0 rout of Georgia Saturday boosted them from 15th. California, 10th behind Southern Methodist last week, moved past that idle team, the two swapping positions.

FALLS FROM TOP

Southern California was the only team to fall from the first 10, slipping from eighth to 12th. By playing a 13-13 tie with Southern California, Ohio State remained at the top of the second 10, or 11th position in the poll, while the Trojans were close behind. They had 181 points to Ohio States' 206.

With the exception of Michigan, all of the top 10 teams are unbeaten and untied.

The top 10 teams and their opponents this week follow:

Notre Dame (1) vs. Tulane (4); Army (2) vs. Harvard; Oklahoma (3) vs. Kansas; Minnesota (5) vs. Ohio State (11); North Carolina (6) vs. Wake Forest; Michigan (7) vs. Northwestern; Kentucky (8) vs. Citadel; California (9) vs. Southern California (12); and Southern Methodist (10) vs. Rice.

Meske Added To Saturday's Wrestle Card

Dr. Ed Meske has been added to the double-barrelled pro wrestling program Saturday night at the Ashland road armory.

The Rubber city chiropractor will meet Lord Blears, the self-styled English nobleman, in one of the two one-hour bouts on the card. Meske last week defeated Hans Schnable in a 30-minute bout and then teamed with Tommy Martindale to win the tag match.

Promoter Clete Kauffman announced the other half of the main go last Saturday. In this one, Gentleman Fred Bozic meets Cyclone Anaya, the junior heavyweight champion. Anaya risks his crown in Cleve-Talaber.

Bozic adopted the "Gentleman" moniker only a few weeks ago, apparently to irritate the fans as he is one of the roughest performers in the grunt and groan racket. Bozic now enters the ring in a top hat, white gloves and a velvet cape—all this with a distainful air.

The 30-minute opener pits Billy Weidner, a former junior titleholder, against Farmer Tommy Marlin.

Tickets are on sale at City News.

Trim Champions

TORONTO — (AP) — The national hockey league's 1948-49 all stars last night trimmed the Stanley cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-1, the game netting $17,261 for the NHL players' pension fund and $8,360 for Toronto charities.

Rams Lose Halfback For Season

Madison's injury-riddled football team received another blow yesterday when it was learned that Halfback Chet Sprague, who injured an ankle in last Saturday's game, probably would be out for the remainder of the season.

Sprague was found to be suffering from contusions of the knee which will likely take several weeks to heal. Madison has only four games left, including a battle with undefeated Loudonville this Friday night at Loudonville.

The injury to Sprague leaves Senior Norm Hughes and Freshman Don Wilson as the Rams only right halfbacks. Hughes, a veteran guard, started for the first time in the backfield last week but was soon shifted back into the line to bolster that department.

However, Coach Ennis Walker said last night that Hughes will run full-time in the backfield now. Hughes was missing from practice yesterday with a pulled tendon in his ankle but will be all right for Friday.

Walker also indicated that he will have at least ten members of the reserve team on the bench this week and will use them all if necessary. Six sophomores and four freshmen saw action in last week's clash with Canton South and all but two were in a varsity game for the first time.

Ed Cheiski, the big junior quarterback, returned to school after a wrist operation yesterday, and reported that he expects to be able to play basketball around the first of the year. A cast on his left arm, however, will prevent any more football this fall. He was the basketball team's leading scorer last season.

Cincinnati Gets Into Pro Hockey

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Professional hockey, steadily widening its scope of operations, moves into another major American city tonight—and also into a new $3,000,000 arena.

Cincinnati will be taking on a brand new sport tonight when a yet unnamed Queen city team meets the Indianapolis Capitals in one of the openers of the American league hockey season.

Senior High Plays Unbeaten 11 Friday

Mansfield Senior high school plays one of the two undefeated teams still on its schedule Friday night when it hosts Euclid in the Tyger ball yard.

The Euclid school has romped over four opponents and will present a big line and a rugged backfield against the Tyger crew which has won three straight after dropping its opener. The Euclid aggregation boasts a line which averages 187 pounds, 15 more than the Tygers.

Coach Augie Morningstar of the Bengals expects a tough game but "not any rougher than the game we had last week. Euclid has good personnel."

Morningstar was speaking at the weekly football meeting of the Tyger Booster club last night at the high school. The Tyger coach gave his impressions of last week's victory over Warren Harding and a scouting report of Euclid.

About the Warren game, Morningstar said, "Our defense was better but I'm glad that one's over."

League officials yesterday informed the Tyger athletic staff that the name of the circuit in which Senior high plays has been changed to the Ohio Scholastic conference. It has been named the Northern Ohio Athletic conference. Senior high leads the OSC which also includes Massillon, Canton McKinley, Toledo Waite, Warren and Alliance.

★

Bill Daugherty of the booster club announced last night that fans will be able to get tickets on the Mansfield Tire special train to the Massillon game on Oct. 21. The train will leave Mansfield at 5:15 p. m. and start the return trip 30 minutes after the contest.

Train tickets are $2.50 and may be obtained at the Mansfield Tire service store on Park Avenue West.

Charles Big Favorite Over Pat Valentino

SAN FRANCISCO — (INS) — Heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles was quoted today as a 4-1 favorite to beat Pat Valentino in their title bout at the San Francisco Cow Palace next Friday.

Both the champion and Valentino taper off training in the next few days.

Big 10 Battle Looming Over Pasadena Pact

CHICAGO — (AP) — The western conference generally favors renewal of its Rose Bowl pact with the Pacific coast but a battle on modification looms.

One strong factor wants the three year clause revised or eliminated so the big 10 champion will automatically get the Pasadena trip.

The present contract, which expires after the 1951 Rose Bowl game, prohibits any team going more than once in a three year period.

The school that wins two successive conference crowns could not be a repeated performer at Pasadena. Michigan won the title in 1947 and went to the Rose Bowl, but could not return although again winning in 1948. Runner-up Northwestern was selected.

Another group, which has support in George D. Stoddard, president of the University of Illinois, and Ted Payseur, Northwestern athletic director, believes the three-year clause is sound. Stoddard says that otherwise the Rose Bowl game would be "over-emphasized."

He and Payseur, as well as some other ranking officials, think that the clause reduces possibilities of recruiting by a dominating school that could keep up a high level of football by selling more Rose Bowl dreams to prospects. Publicly, the only voice raised against a pact is that of James L. Morrill, president of the University of Minnesota. He did not want it in the first place and is campaigning against its renewal "with all my power."

He contends the Rose Bowl agreement greatly adds pressure on teams and coaches, has failed to better relations between the two conferences and has cut into big 10 prestige since the conference had previously always stood adamant to post season games.

Only 800 Massillon Ducats Left

Only 800 reserved seats for adults remain for the Mansfield - Massillon high school football game in Massillon Oct. 21, George Sherman, Senior high ticket manager, announced today.

The 800 tickets are all that remain of 4,480 adult seats assigned to Mansfield fans by Washington high. These tickets may be purchased at Senior high school during the day or Wednesday night from 7 until 9 p. m.

In addition to the adult tickets, Senior high received 450 ducats for students. These will go on sale tomorrow at the school.

Sherman reminded fans today that when the 800 tickets are exhausted Mansfield fans will be unable to get any additional reserved seats for the game. However, if more fans wish to attend the contest seats in the end zone may be obtained.

Sale of tickets for the Euclid-Senior high contest Friday night started with a bang yesterday. These reserved tickets are on sale at the high school and R. E. Moorhead, Inc.

Detroit Boxer Nears Death

DETROIT — (AP) — Talmadge Bussey, 26-year-old Detroit lightweight, lay near death today in the hospital where he was rushed after being knocked out in the ninth round of a ring battle last night.

Surgeons at St. Mary's hospital performed a delicate operation to remove a blood clot from his brain. Several hours later hospital attendants reported the fighter's condition "slightly improved but still critical."

Bussey and Luther Rawlings of Chicago fought in the feature attraction at the Arcadia roller rink. It was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Joe Louis Plans Exhibition Tour

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Joe Louis is planning to begin training soon at Pompton Lakes, N. J., for a series of what he calls "ten-round exhibition bouts with ten-ounce gloves."

Following a four-round exhibition with Curtis (Hatchetman) Sheppard here last night, Louis disclosed he would like to engage in about six or eight of the tn-rounders with the rounds of three minutes duration.

Booster Meeting

The Madison Booster club will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the school. LaVern Thrush, club president, said that plans for an athletic banquet would be discussd.

Michigan State Coaching Great Dies In Philly

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — John Farrell Macklin, who in five years of coaching built up one of the best records in the football record books, died at his home in the Philadelphia suburbs yesterday. He was 65.

Macklin was the founding father of big time football at Michigan state college, newly elected member of the big ten. The school named its stadium Macklin field in his honor.

Macklin coached Michigan State—then Michigan Agricultural college — from 1911 through 1915 and lost only three games. He piloted the first Spartan team to defeat a University of Michigan eleven.

That red letter day was in 1913 when Michigan State upset a team coached by the great fielding (Hurry Up) Yost by a 12 to 7 score.

Michigan came back to win in 1914 on a 60-yard dropkick, 3-0.

But Macklin wound up his collegiate coaching career in 1915 with a 24-0 trounching of Michigan.

After that, Macklin quit, "while still ahead."

Columbus Red Birds Acquire Houston Ace

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The Columbus Red Birds today acquired pitcher Mike Clark, 27-year-old right hander, from the Houston Bluffs of the Texas league.

Clark, of Camden, N. J., topped the Columbus, Ga., Saily Loop pitching staff this season with 18 wins against 8 losses for a percentage of .692.

Night Games Listed For 'Scrubs,' Juniors

The first of four night football sessions for Mansfield's junior high and reserve teams will be held Thursday at Madison field when the Little Rams play host to John Simpson at 7 p. m.

Simpson will be trying to bring its record to the .500 mark while the Madison team is still looking for its first victory—or defeat—of the season. The Rams have tied Shelby and Mt. Vernon while Simpson has beaten Shelby, tied Loudonville and lost to Wooster and Sandusky.

Past records, therefore, rate the teams about even but the Madison team has been riddled in the past two weeks by promotion of a half-dozen or so of its players to the varsity. Seven members of the reserve team played in the Rams game with Canton South last week and looked impressive enough that Coach Ennis Walker probably will not let them see any more reserve action.

Another night session for the junior highs will be held next Wednesday when a double-header will be played at Arlin field. The Madison reserves are to meet Johnny Appleseed followed by a game between Simpson and the Bellville reserves.

Both Madison and Arlin field have tilts booked for Oct. 26. The traditional Simpson-Appleseed battle will be held at the stadium while Madison reserves are to meet the Wooster seconds at Ram field.

Johnny Appleseed also has a game booked for Thursday, playing the Shelby reserves at 4 p. m. at Stadium field.

New Set of Sizes Seen For Boys

'Tens' No Longer Fit 1-Year-Olds

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON — (UP) —The trouble with junior is that he's getting too big for his britches.

A size 10 doesn't fit a 10-year-old any more. And the National Bureau of Standards, which measures everything from the last bubble of foam in a beer vat to a split in the atom, knows it

The man with the tape-measure around the small male fry was Mansfield Lonie, from the apparel division of the bureau of standards.

Lonie said he has probably measured more small chests and rear ends than any man in the country. He came up with some complicated charts to prove it.

One of them was called "Body Landmarks." He displayed this one to show that, boys being boys, they aren't all the same size. Take the cervical. That's the neck to us, one syllable guys. It varies from boy to boy. Ditto, the hat size, the waist, the hip, and even the calf and the knee.

Lonie made it clear that he wasn't advocating custom-made clothes for boys who have cinder holes in the knees of their pants and wear out the seats by way of nails on fences and so forth.

"It's a little complicated," he told the men who sell pants and underwear. "Sizes don't mean much anymore. A kid may be thick in the hind quarters and built like a greyhound in the chest."

Also, he said, some kids have long arms and others have short ones.

Lonie said that the bureau of standards has spent a lot of time on the project and finally has come up with something logical.

It recommends that in order to keep parents from going crazy and junior from squirming in his seat at school with ill-fitting underpants, that the manufacturer plaster each garment thusly: "Size. Height. Weight."

That way Mom can't go very far wrong when she goes shopping.

The single range of sizes like juvenile, little boys, junior boys, pre. big boys, etc. All broken down according to weight and height, according to Lonie's blueprint.

Life may be beautiful for Mother once more when she goes shopping.

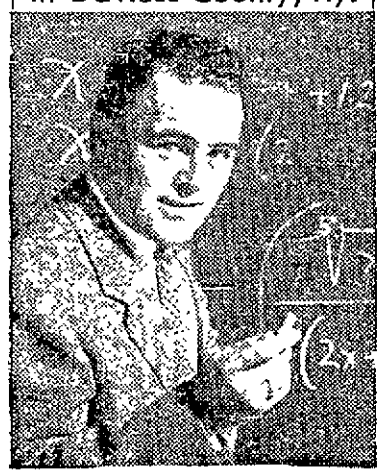
MATHEMATICIAN STUMPED FOR 9 YEARS

Solves Problem
In Daviess County, Ky.



EDGAR A. LEACH

"Nine years ago," says Edgar A. Leach, Mathematician, "I began searching for America's most satisfying, full-bodied and economical straight whiskey. Recently, I tasted the rich, glowing flavor of Fleischmann's Daviess County Kentucky Straight Bourbon, and I knew my problem was solved." It has all the superb qualities of the most costly bourbons—every drop 90 proof, every drop four years old—yet Fleischmann's Daviess County costs only $3.72 for a 4/5th quart. Take it from a man who has looked far and wide —you'll never find a better Kentucky Bourbon at any price!

WHY A STEEL STRIKE?

United States Steel wants to do what is right by its employees. We have always sought the loyal cooperation and friendship of our employees.

United States Steel favors proper programs of insurance, welfare, and pensions for its employees. We have had insurance and pension plans in effect for many years. We are ready and willing to try to work out with the Union through collective bargaining any changes in our existing programs for insurance and pensions which are now necessary or desirable.

Last week we made an offer to the Union to pay as our share of the cost of programs of insurance and pensions to be negotiated with the Union up to an average of 4 cents an hour for insurance and 6 cents an hour for pensions. That was a very substantial offer on our part. It would provide at our expense insurance and welfare benefits which our employees do not presently enjoy. The adoption of such programs would add more than $50,000,000 annually to our costs of operation.

The Union flatly rejected this liberal proposal and called a strike against us. Why? Simply because United States Steel is not willing to agree in advance that it will pay the entire cost of insurance and pensions for its employees.

Because of the Union's adamant stand that we must pay the entire cost of insurance and pensions for employees, the Union has deprived our employees of an opportunity immediately to obtain, without additional cost to them, insurance protection far superior to that which the employees now possess.

United States Steel proposed to pay as its share of the cost of an insurance program about $5.70 a month for each participating employee. A single employee would pay as his share about $2 a month and an employee with dependents about $3 a month. Our employees on the average are now paying under existing welfare arrangements more than these amounts each month for lesser benefits. The payments by our employees under the proposed insurance program would not reduce their present take-home pay.

A proper and financially sound pension plan calls for most careful consideration. United States Steel has offered to join with the Union in making a joint study on pensions, and, upon the completion of this study, to negotiate with the Union for a pension plan to be included in a new labor contract, effective on May 1, 1950. As an indication of its good faith, United States Steel has offered to pay up to 6 cents an hour as its share of the cost of a mutually satisfactory contributory pension plan. Here again, the Union flatly rejected our proposal.

The only issue in the present steel strike is this:

Shall United States Steel be forced now to agree that it must pay the entire cost of insurance, welfare benefis and pensions for its employees? An assumption by the employer of complete financial responsibility would amount to the adoption of a major and highly costly principle, probably for all time. Moreover, such action by a large steel company would probably set a pattern for all American business. There is grave doubt as to the financial ability of American industry alone to pay the cost of adequate insurance and pension programs for employees. Furthermore, is it not in the best interests of the employee that he participate in the creation of a savings account for his future welfare?

Social security in which both employer and employee share the cost has been the established order in this country for many years, as evidenced by the Federal Social Security Act.

Why should our employees and the whole nation suffer the disastrous consequences of a steel strike, from which the employees have so little to gain?

Bills Urge Underground Hospitals, Shelters for U. S.

Way Sought To Guard Officials

Congress Unit Starts Hearings

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Two congressmen yesterday introduced bills aimed at insuring the nation's civilian defenses against a possible sudden atomic attack.

The congressional atomic committee, at the same time, planned hearings on the problem of arranging civilian defenses against an A-bomb assault on this country.

In the house, Rep. McDonnough (R) Calif., offered a resolution directing the defense secretary to study underground facilities in major U. S. cities which might be used as shelters and hospitals in event of an enemy raid.

Rep. Hale (R) Me., introduced a bill to establish a committee to study the problem of protecting the president, cabinet members and other national leaders should Washington become an atomic target.

Chairman McMahon (D) Conn. said public hearings on civilian defense — which he indicated were prompted by Russia's possession of the atomic bomb — probably will be held next week. He said:

"The existence of atomic explosives makes it imperative that we get about the business of planning and carrying out sensible measures looking toward minimizing the effects of any atomic attack.

McMahon added:

"The mere fact that we are looking into this problem does not mean that I think we are going to be subject to an atomic attack.

"But the time to prepare for civilian defense is in advance not in the middle of an attack."

Hit By Epidemic, Family Gets Help From Hospital Bureau

The sudden illness and hospitalization of youngsters stricken in the gastro-intestinal outbreak in the suburban area northwest of the city last August found a number of families faced with doctor and hospital bills which they were unable to pay

One such family was that of a man who is employed steadily with an income of $180 per month. After making mortgage payments on their home, and providing food and clothing for his family of five children the family had exactly five dollars left each month.

Theirs was one of the unfortunate families stricken with the sickness, which resulted in their youngest daughter being sent to General hospital where she received medical care for 15 days

At the time of her illness there was only one thought uppermost in the minds of the parents To have their daughter recover Came the day when the doctor announced she was sufficiently recovered to go home, and they were faced with the problem of getting the money for the doctor and hospital

They were ineligible for public relief as the father was employed There were no friends to advance the money They appealed to the Hospital Bureau of the Community Chest, where Miss Faye Chamberlain, case investigator, listened to their story, and promised to help them

The next day Miss Chamberlain called the father and told him that the Hospital bureau had investigated the case and would pay hospital bills incurred during the youngster's illness.

The above case is only one of many in which the Hospital bureau, a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest, has assisted The bureau, one of the least-publicized agencies of the Chest, has also assisted many families in applying to proper welfare agencies for aid in solving financial problems resulting from emergencies.

2 Slashed In Attack

A North Walnut street man and a 30-year-old North Main street woman were released from General hospital today after receiving treatment for knife wounds suffered early Sunday at the hands of assailants

The woman, identified by police as Mrs. Luella Mason, 222½ North Main street, was reportedly slashed on the back by an unknown assailant shortly after midnight Saturday on North Diamond street, north of Sixth street.

Police said the attack was reported by John Mason, husband of the injured woman. Mrs Mason was taken to General hospital and admitted at 12 30 a m Sunday.

Troy R. Saylers, 151 North Walnut street, suffered severe cuts on the neck and head, allegedly inflicted by Charles Edgar Francis, 7 Grandview avenue, in an altercation at Sam's cafe, 859 Bowman street shortly after midnight Saturday

Francis, who suffered mouth laceration, was treated and released Saylers, charged with drunk and disorderly conduct by the cafe proprietor, Sam Maras, was fined $10 and costs in municipal court yesterday

Whose Responsibility?

EVERY BRIDAL COUPLE IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY

THERE were 6,601 marriages in Ohio Public Service territory in 1948. That means 6,601 new domestic establishments — 6,601 new customers for Ohio Public Service, who will use about 12,600,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity a year.

Yes — young couples want to live electrically — in the modern manner. And it's our responsibility to furnish all the electricity they want when they want it. Another reason for our $62,000,000 six-year expansion program.

This program includes the addition of nearly 350,000 horsepower to our generating plant capacity — over 300 miles of 132,000-volt transmission lines and greatly increased substation capacity.

Where's the $62,000,000 coming from to finance this expansion? From individual investors, banks and insurance companies who buy securities. That's why it's important that we run our business so that our securities will be attractive to investors seeking a reasonable return on their money.

There are 9,258 men and women who are owners of The Ohio Public Service Company. They have invested more than $32,000,000 in the Company's stock.

Ohio Supreme Court Restrains Higher Jobless Benefits

Temporary Injunction Approved

New Law Heads For Showdown

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court Monday issued an order temporarily stopping payment of increased state unemployment compensation benefits under certain conditions.

He issued a writ of prohibition directed against Frank J. Collopy, administrator of the bureau of unemployment compensation, forbidding him to pay the increases to those drawing compensation on the effective date of a law passed by the last legislature.

The writ was issued at the request of George D. Geyer, vice president of the Ohio Restaurant assoiation and a retaurant owner in Osborn. Geyer said about $12,000,000 was involved in the increases.

Collopy recently received an opinion from Attorney General Duffy that the increased benefits voted by the legislature could be received by those on the unemployment compensation rolls prior to Aug. 22, the date the amended law went into effect.

However, William C. Bryant, chief counsel in the attorney general's office, said that no checks containing the increases had been sent out yet to such unemployed persons, although the BUC was ready to do so.

The chief justice directed Collopy to show cause by Oct. 17 why he should not be prohibited permanently from paying the increased benefits to claimants on record before the Aug. 22 date.

Bicycles Taken

Another bike, reported stolen at the same time and owned by Larry Maneese, 146½ West Third street, was recovered later by the owner who said a friend had "borrowed" the bike.

Paper Denies 'Trust' Charge

seeks "relief" in behalf of a radio station in Elyria and the Lorain weekly paper, since the injunction which the government seeks asks that the Lorain paper be required to accept any and all advertising from advertisers on the Elyris radio station and in the weekly paper, provided only that such advertising is not contrary to law.

The government also seeks to enjoin the Lorain paper and its owners from acquiring ownership of any competing newspapers or radio station.

The suit, according to spokesmen of the Department of Justice, is the first of its type ever brought against a newspaper in the U. S.

In a statement issued after the government's suit was filed, Publisher Horvitz said the fundamental issue of the case is whether the government can force a newspaper to accept advertising it does not wish to publish.

He pointed out that such power would not be limited to the Lorain paper, and that if government bureaucrats can gain control over the advertising contents of the American press, it would be a short step to gaining control over the news and editorial contents as well.

The publisher asserted that radio already is under the thumb of the Federal communications commission, and added that this suit may be the first step toward an FCC for newspapers.

Galion Couple 'Glad' Upon Return After Overseas Stay

By CATHERINE RORICK
N-J State Correspondent

GALION—Reunited with relatives and friends here this week, Capt. Eldon R. Davis, 30, and his wife, the former Mary M. White, are "very glad" to return to the United States after three years in Germany.

They arrived here yesterday 15 hours and 15 minutes after leaving the Rhine Main airport at Frankfurt, Germany. They boarded an Army Constellation plane there at 3:45 p. m. Saturday and arrived at Westover Field, Mass., at 6:30 a. m. Sunday. They took a train to Galion, reaching here at 4:30 a. m. Monday.

Capt. Davis has been located at the 7720 EUCOM Replacement department at Marburg, Germany, for the past three years. He went there in October, 1946 and his wife joined him five months later. During vacations they traveled extensively throughout Europe and are awaiting arrival of souvenirs they freighted home.

"It is like coming back to civilization," Capt. Davis remarked upon his return here. In Marburg they had a comfortable apartment and obtained food at the commissary. A week before they arrived their English boxer dog was sent by express plane to her mother, Mrs. Ella White, of West Summit street. It is called Sable because of its coloring.

Mrs. Davis made most of her clothing from materials sent her from the United States as clothing for German women was not as attractive or stylish as that worn in the United States, she said. She did buy dresses in Paris during her tours.

The couple report products in German stores are higher priced and of poorer quality than those found here. Capt. Davis said the German telephone systems are discouraging—especially on long distance calls. While the Army had its own buses he said transportation for civilians is poor.

He did find restaurants to be good and about a month ago night clubs were opened to military personnel. Capt Davis next reports to Fort George K. Meade in Maryland to rejoin the Third Armored Calvary regiment. During the war he was overseas a year and a half with service in France, Germany and Luxembourg. Following the war's end he returned to the United States in July, 1945.

The Davis' were married in Kansas before he first went overseas.

When OSR Escapees Invade Homes

EASE with which Ohio state reformatory inmates can walk away from the institution farm creates a hazard for rural residents of the reformatory area, as evidenced by the experience of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hollenbaugh and their daughter at their farm home near Ganges last Sunday evening.

It can only be regarded as extreme good fortune that the Hollenbaugh family escaped the fate of the three members of the John Niebel family who were murdered by West and Daniels, reformatory parolees, last year.

Forced entrance into the Hollenbaugh home was not unlike that in the Niebel tragedy, and such a show of viciousness as marked the behavior of the men who tied up and robbed the Hollenbaughs might easily have been carried to the extent of murder.

Permission to enjoy freedom outside the walls of a penal institution presupposes confidence that such privilege will be respected, and it is instances such as that herein cited which tend to tighten restrictions on other inmates who are made to suffer as a result of misbehavior by parolees or escapees.

Tariff Argument Still Going On

ONE traditional argument for a high tariff is nonsense, says Paul G. Hoffman, administrator of the Economic Co-operation Administration. He speaks partly from his knowledge of European conditions, and partly out of his manufacturing experience with the Studebaker Corporation. Both lead him to decry the old fear that Europe might flood the United States with masses of cheap goods. Says he:

"The goods Europeans can send will be, for some time to come, pathetically few and disappointingly high in price."

The old alarm of cheap goods has not been heard so often lately as used to be the case, but now and then it is sounded. It was raised promptly after the recent money devaluations in Europe. Americans should profit by their experience after World War I.

Then we were told solemnly that, in addition to fighting the rest of the world almost single-handed, Germany had been accumulating masses of manufactured articles, ready to ship them to the United States as soon as peace was declared, to capture the American market. This tale was too preposterous to deserve credit, but it was spread, and helped make it possible to enact the high protectionist Fordney-McCumber tariff act of 1922.

Diplomacy Runs In Family

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, now senator from New York by gubernatorial appointment, is generally known as an expert on foreign affairs and diplomacy. He studied in the field for many years, and has made some trips abroad on official diplomatic missions. He comes from a family distinguished by similar activities.

His brother, Allen Dulles, was in the diplomatic service for many years, winding up with four years as chief of the state department division of Near Eastern affairs. He has been practising law since 1926. Then there is a cousin, Foster, a history professor at Ohio State University, who has the same interest in international relations and is the author of several books on the subject.

The common interest of the three goes back to their grandfather, John W. Foster, who was United States minister at several European courts and served for a short time as secretary of state under President Benjamin Harrison. His son-in-law, Robert Lansing, was also a diplomatic expert, and for five years President Wilson's secretary of state.

Such special interests often run in families. It will be interesting to observe what laurels John Foster Dulles adds to the family name, if he succeeds in extending the political career he has now begun.

Red and Green Sheets

A STARTLING experience, until the sleeper got used to it, would be to awake in a bed made up in indigo or pink. Sheets of such colors, brought out with some timidity before the war and then held up because of war necessities, are now back on the market, at the disposal of anyone who thinks that it would be nice to have a change from the conventional white. Pastel colors predominate, but other and more surprising shades are to be found.

A nervous sleeper, finding in the middle of the night that he was lying in bright red sheets, might stage a commotion with the idea that his bed was on fire. But that need not, and will not, stop a housewife bent on experimenting with a new bedroom color scheme.

The hurricane season is coming to an end in Florida, but here in Ohio the time of big winds is just beginning with election about a month away.

Bill Vaughan, in the Kansas City Star, asks, "Whatever happened to the neat-type smoker who flicked his cigaret ashes in his trouser cuff?"

Russia Directs East Germany's Moves

BY J. C. OESTREICHER

CAREFULLY coordinated policies of the western allied powers in Germany were put to their severest test when the newest dictatorship of the twentieth century started functioning in Berlin.

The freshblown totalitarian regime on a European continent that presumably should be disillusioned of such political concepts is the eastern German state established by German communists with a hearty assist from Soviet Russia.

The dictatorial methods of the new regime were made evident from the outset.

German communists chosen to head the government that is pitting its propaganda against western prestige announced immediately that no general elections in the Soviet zone would be permitted until October of next year.

Ostensibly, the program is to provide for a levelling off of affairs to a normal basis before the people are allowed to go to the polls. Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewahl to entrench themselves in power before launching an all-[illegible] campaign to divorce all of Germany from any allegiance to the western world and make of it a satellite appendage of Soviet Russia.

In a very short space of time, the communist dictators of eastern Germany can be expected to make an announcement that will come as a tremendous surprise and sensation, although it was inevitable from the beginning of Russia's plan to split the nation in two.

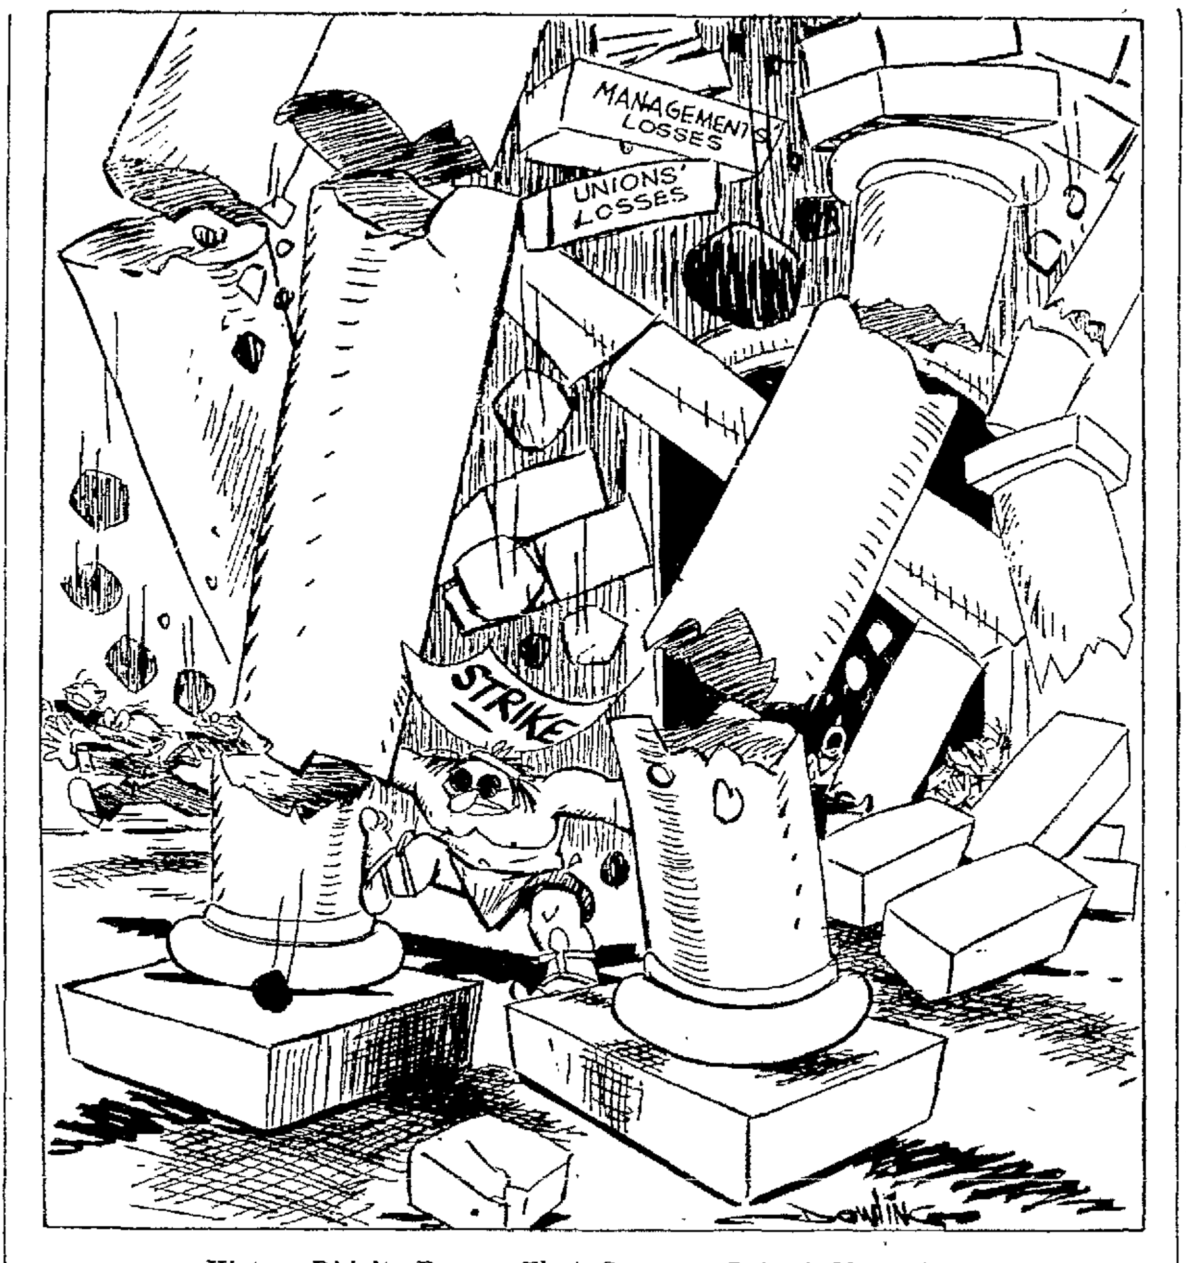
This will be the establishment in ruined Berlin of a German ministry of foreign affairs—an organization designed to deal on an equal and sovereign plane with the state departments of the world powers.

It will receive no recognition, of course, from the United States, Great Britain, France and the other western nations.

But it will be hailed and hallelujahed by the cominform nations. It will strut and parade in the wreckage of Wilhelmstrasse buildings where the late and unlamented Joachim Von Ribbentrop once held court, and it will call for a real voice in international affairs.

On the face of it, this will be a faked, counterfeit, meaningless and bankrupt token to the German people

But it is extremely likely to be an effective move in the propaganda game.



History Didn't Prove That Samson Gained Much By It.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Pressure Applied In Leland Olds Case

PRESIDENT TRUMAN seems to have selected in Democratic Chairman William M. Boyle jr., of Kansas City, a man cut in his own pattern of politics and, it might be added, in the traditional pattern of Kansas City machine politics.

Boyle dispatched telegrams to all national committee members, state chairmen and vice chairmen, asking them to tell their respective senators that "the people" want Leland Olds confirmed as federal power commissioner.

The President and his chairman thus pretend to be the established oracles of "the people." Senators who constitutionally act as the chosen representatives of the people of their respective states are thus forced to ignore their own sources of information about a nomination for office and their own knowledge of what their people want and listen to the true voice—the President.

Without raising the question of party loyalty, which the President brought into this press conference on the subject, let us first consider the fiction that "the people" have any direct knowledge of or interest in Olds. It is doubtful if one out of 100,000 ever heard of Olds before this confirmation issue arose.

To prove his relative anonymity, let me cite a personal incident. A few weeks ago, a very well known American called me on the telephone to say that Mrs. Roosevelt, in dictating one of her endless magazine memorabilia, had asked him for the name of someone or anyone who had advised her husband on power policies while he was governor.

After scraping through the dusty attic of my memory, I answered that somebody who worked in the New York state government had submitted some material for a Roosevelt speech on power in 1932. Finally, I came up with the name of "Leland." Then, by association, the name "Olds" was remembered. But was it Olds Leland or Leland Olds?

* * *

An Unfamiliar Name.

MY QUESTIONER, a vastly informed man, had never heard of him. Neither, apparently, had Mrs. Roosevelt. So I checked and double checked and found that a man by the name of Leland Olds had worked in the state government during Roosevelt's service as governor. We then noted in passing that Olds had later become a member of the Federal Power Commission—a fact that was apparently news to both of us.

This is cited to show that the name of Leland Olds certainly means nothing to the generality of people. The reference by Boyle to "the people" was therefore sheer buncombe.

He meant that Truman wanted Olds and that the heat was to be put on senators by a lot of politicians who themselves had probably never before heard of Olds.

The senators who have performed their job of investigating the President's nomination for office know all about Olds, of course. A matter of this sort is a senator's sworn duty to know. He cannot take a poll of his constituents every time he casts a vote. He must act as the people's agent and use his own judgment.

The President, too, must act upon his own judgment. He has no mandate from the people on Olds, nor did his party in conference nominate Olds. So the matter is a question of opinion, and the senators must act as the Constitution tells them to do. It is neither a "people's" matter nor a party matter.

The heat implied, is of course, a threat to the senators that if they do not surrender their right of judgment, they will be punished by the withholding of partronage and by other means.

There is every evidence that the Truman administration intends to use the crudest political pressure to enforce its will. This will extend not only to patronage, but, as is shown in the threatened prosecution of the American Medical Association, to the use of federal law enforcement machinery to break down opposition.

Our federal administration is descending rapidly to the level of county politics. And, it may be added, to some of the lower regions of counties.

One Man's Opinion

—By WALTER KIERNAN

THE BROOKS and the Yanks are scrappy enough but wait 'till the Army and Navy meets this year!

* * *

Let me be the first to suggest that the game be played under the auspices of the Atomic Control Commission . . . There may be an explosion.

* * *

If you're looking for the President at the annual service game you'll find him in the middle, looking unhappy.

* * *

But it's hard to understand how so much "Big Navy" opposition developed, with the President coming from Missouri and the secretary from Nebraska . Two of our biggest seacoast states.

* * *

Anyway since the brass starter jutting it's jaw we know why they call it "The Fighting Navy"

* * *

The whole thing could be settled so simply all the Navy needs is another President who was an amateur yachtsman.

As Cerf Tells It

SAKI, the celebrated English short story writer, lived at his club a great deal because his home was plagued by recurrent "servant trouble." One day he jubilantly told his friends that these troubles were over: "his wife had latched on to a perfect gem of a domestic." A week later, alas, he was back at the club, explaining sadly, "Yes, she was a good cook as cooks go, and as good cooks go, she went."

H. L. Mencken defines puritanism as "the haunting fear that someone, somewhere, may be happy."

Timely Editorial

No Color TV Yet.

If you are thinking of buying a television set, go out and buy it.

Television in color has not yet jelled. Engineers have been working on it for a long time. It is possible to broadcast an image in color. It has been done, and every TV manager has sat through demonstrations. Flowers in different colors have appeared on the screen. Presently, however, they all dissolved into one color. Or something else went wrong. Anything called television in color and put into operation now will lose friends for all concerned.

Color TV will be along one of these years—not this year; nor next.—Detroit News.

As Others See It

Off-Street Parking

A New York traffic expert made a suggestion the other day which might well be considered for application here. Members of the Institute of Traffic Engineers, meeting in Washington, were talking about parking meters. Nathan Cherniack, economist of the Port of New York authority, was doubtful that parking meters were practicable in the congested streets of Manhattan. But if New York City ever decides to install meters, he said, "I believe it should be thoroughly understood that the money collected from meters, after the upkeep expenses are deducted, should be utilized for off-street parking requirements and no other purpose."

Washington Merry-Go-Round

History Repeats In Present Navy Revolt

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It's been a long time since the U. S. Navy hung the son of the U. S. Secretary of War, John C. Spencer, "at the yard-arm of the brig Somers for insubordination and attempted mutiny," but there's always been a certain amount of insubordination in the Navy not unlike that flaring in the headlines today.

There was the case when the admirals, through their mouthpiece, the Navy League, called their Commander-In-Chief Herbert Hoover "abysmally ignorant."

There was the case when the admirals, led by Hilary P. Jones, sabotaged Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson on 8-inch-gun cruisers. And there was the bitter attack on Stimson's war record, carried on sub rosa by the admirals.

There was also the leak of a secret naval document regarding dirigible bases by Adm. Joseph M. Reeves, not unlike the leak by Capt. Crommelin today. And there was the shameless way in which certain naval advisers to the Coolidge naval conference in 1927 conspired with William Baldwin Shearer, lobbyist for American steel manufacturers and shipbuilders, to defeat the policies of their commander-in-chief, Mr. Coolidge.

Looking back over the last three decades, the Navy has battled much more vigorously against its Republican commanders-in-chief than against the Democrats. This is partly because, under Franklin D. Roosevelt, a former assistant naval secretary, there was almost nothing the navy wanted that it could not get Even regarding uniforms, FDR bowed to the admirals. Because of the scarcity of textiles during the war, his secretary of the navy, the late Frank Knox, had banned a new blue-gray summer uniform. Whereupon, fleet commander Admiral Ernie King walked into the White House and reversed Knox in five minutes.

One reason the admirals are so irate today, of course, is that their inside drag with the White House is no more. Not only was Harry Truman an artillery captain during World War I, but his very close friend, Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, is interested in the Army, not the Navy.

* * *

The Admirals Still Leak.

READING a book written 17 years ago, I came across this paragraph:

"Leaks are among the admirals most effective means of propagandizing. When a White House decision has gone against them, when the state department is carrying on a negotiation which the admirals oppose, when they fail to get their full appropriation, then the safest and best strategy is to leak.

"They do this to the press or to a discreet member of Congress. Both channels are effective. A furore is stirred up. The President or the state department is pictured as stripping the country of its defense and baring its bosom to the enemy—and after all the furore has subsided, the admirals usually find themselves on top."

That statement, written by this columnist in 1932 in the book "More Merry - go-Round," is equally true today. It is true regarding the Captain Crommelin leaks; and it is true regarding the leaks to Congressman Van Zandt, the naval reserve officer who so grossly libeled secretary of air Symington under the safety of congressional immunity.

* * *

Admirals' Day In Court.

THE PUBLIC has largely forgotten it, but twice the Navy has been given complete and lengthy hearings by Congress, and each time Congress ruled against the Navy. Following which the admirals refused to accept the congressional decision.

In 1946-47 Congress held protracted hearings regarding unification of the armed forces. The Navy was vigorously opposed. One of the admirals testifying against unification at that time was Adm. Gerald F. Bogan, who, apparently forgetting his own testimony, wrote a letter, recently leaked to the press, in which he complained that the Navy never had a hearing.

However, after months of hearings and after listening to anyone who wanted to testify, Congress voted for unification. In a civilian form of government, it is the Congress, not the Navy, which is supposed to have the final word.

Again last winter further hearings were held on unification. Again Congress listened patiently to the admirals, but again Congress voted against them, tightened unification.

* * *

Cavalry and Battleships.

ADMIRALS Bogan, Radford and Denfeld now complain that morale in the navy is low. That is true.

However, during the 1946-47 hearings, congressmen proposed that naval officers have the right to transfer to the Air Forces or any branch of the Army with equal pay and rank, or with even greater pay and rank—if justified.

This provision was inserted because it was foreseen that battleships and surface vessels, now easy targets for atomic bombs, would be put out of commission and there should be some place for naval officers to go.

The situation was considered similar to that in the Army when cavalry and horse-drawn artillery became outmoded. Cavalrymen and any other officer in an outmoded branch of the service were permitted to transfer to the expanding air forces, sometimes with a promotion.

But when Congress proposed that naval officers be allowed to transfer to the Army or Air Force, the admirals opposed. At their behest this provision was taken out of the unification bill.

That is the real reason why morale is low in the Navy. The inescapable fact is that the battleship is woefully out of date, and the Navy would even like to lay up the Missouri—if President Truman would concent. Thus naval officers have no other branch of the service to which they can transfer. No wonder they are discouraged.

Not much is said about it, and the report is still secret, but real trouble with the Navy today is the Bikini bomb test. When cruisers and battleships were found to have been radioactive months after Bikini, and finally had to be taken out in the sea and sunk, you can understand why the Navy is getting out-of-date. Bikini vessels which came within range of the atomic fumes couldn't even be saved for scrap iron. That's the key to the admirals' woes.

Admirable Switzerland

By INEZ ROBB

GENEVA — Vive la Switzerland! I am seriously thinking of taking a ten-year option on the country, with renewal privileges and a place to hide if the big boys start slugging it out again in my life time.

The Swiss, smart as their own dollar watches, are a canny people devoted to bicycle riding and neutrality. Starting from scratch with nothing much but a mess of mountains, this nation has parlayed its scenery and a talent for keeping its nose clean into a giltedge proposition.

If other nations want to gang up on each other every generation, Switzerland is willing to hold their coats and rent out her hotels for the ensuing peace conferences. But that's about as far as she will go.

As a result, Switzerland is the only nation of Europe still on the gold standard. A Swiss is the only man left in the western world who can ankle into one of his banks, hand over a roll of paper money, demand gold coin and get it.

The result is the highest standard of living in Europe, and it would not surprise me at any moment if the Swiss started sending CARE packages to Americans. As I sit in the sidewalk cafes of Geneva, the men, women and children who stream past me are the best looking, best dressed and best fed I have seen in Europe.

If there are any poor people, there must be a state law that keeps them off the streets except from midnight to 6 a. m. The populace looks sleek, happy and full of swiss chocolate. And I gather that there is not only a chicken in every pot but two bicycles in every garage.

The Swiss can get more people and equipment on a bicycle than others can get into a buggy. A wife, two children, a complete camping outfit, an umbrella in case of rain and the family Fido is about standard equipment when a Swiss starts peddling. The nation is so small that the Swiss have had to learn to conserve space, even on a bicycle.

Foreigners have been falsely led to believe that yodelling is the most characteristic sound of Switzerland. The basic national sound in this country is that of the scrub brush.

This must surely be the neatest, cleanest country in the world. Everything is scrubbed and polished to precision. The streets are so immaculate that even American tourists hesitate to throw gum wrappers on the ground.

* * *

Neatness Seen Everywhere.

THE SWISS cab horses have even gotten into the spirit of the thing and wear snow white snoods that are tailored to fit perfectly over their ears and foreheads.

When I was walking in the parks today, I noted the riding horses, always a social cut above the cab nag, wear white wimples that not only fit the ears like a glove but cover the whole head and neck, with big holes for their peppers, natch!

These are the choicest horses I have ever seen, and I hesitate to think what I may evenkaluly I be inerw hndayoegmn tually be wearing on my head if Sally Victor or Lilly Dache ever get a glimpse of these beasts.

It is obvious from the moment one crosses the border into this country that every Swiss has a green thumb. I have never seen such beautiful parks or such masses of flowers.

Give any Swiss a half dozen packets of flower seeds and a few potted plants in the spring, and by this time of year he has achieved a flower bed of such intricate and elaborate design that it looks like a refugee from a cartier window.

I am enchanted by the great baskets of flowers that hang halfway up the tall lamp posts. And I think it's very considerate of the Swiss to mass flowers in the center of every watering trough so that even the animals can sniff the posies.

And they don't just cut the lawns in Switzerland—they shave 'em. Any lawn caught with five o'clock shadow gets the bum's rush.

Serving the Public

By LOIS ADAMS BYERS

AN established newspaper column gets lots of mail from "public relations experts." These are the people who make a business of contacting newspapers with odd bits of news, usually of business import. Here's the gist of three such letters:

* * *

AN ARTICLE, "Is She Really a Nurse," in October Good Housekeeping magazine is "an outstanding public service," according to the American Nurses' Association. Dr. Esther Lucille Brown of the Russell Sage Foundation has said, "Anyone may put on a uniform and call herself simply a 'nurse.'"

As a means of combatting this real danger to public health, the article recommends that all states pass laws forbidding anyone to nurse for hire who has not met prescribed standards and passed prescribed tests. The American Nurses association has compiled a directory of all the trained nurses in this country.

* * *

NATIONAL Federation of American Shipping announces that between five and six million dollars has been spent since the war, for radar installations to increase the safety and efficiency of privately owned merchant ships. In the Federal Communications Commission hearing, recently concluded, the ocean shipping industry, other radar user groups, and radar manufacturing companies protested the proposed adoption by FCC of radar operator regulations on the ground that to limit the jurisdiction of the master of merchant vessels with respect to radar would prevent full use of this navigation aid.

* * *

THE American Optometric association "in the interest of the visual welfare of the American people," declares that failure to see properly is a far more important cause of highway accidents than we generally realize. Death on the highways strikes three times as frequently at night as in the daytime.

Millions of drivers are unaware of their own visual shortcomings and driver license tests in most states do not discover the cases needing attention.

Scientific standard screening tests are recommended as part of examinations for drivers' licenses. They are based on what the vast majority of drivers can actually do visually. Most drivers will pass the tests with flying colors. Most of those who are referred for further examination can bring their vision up to acceptance level.

Others may qualify for restricted licenses or be limited in speed, or to daytime driving only those who are obviously in danger of becoming killers are likely to be denied.

Fitchville Grange Hall To Be Razed

Historic Landmark Wrecked By Truck

NEW LONDON — Decision to raze the 130-year-old Fitchville Grange Hall building was announced today by Wallace Cawrse, Grange master, after a settlement had been reached with the Aetna Trucking company. An Aetna truck smashed into the weakened structure four months ago.

The building is one of this area's historic landmarks. It was built by Union White, whose descendants still live here.

The "Manse" was a popular stopping place on the Wooster turnpike, now State Route 250, for the immense wagon trains that plied between Wooster and Milan thence via canal to Lake Erie shopping centers.

Hotel, saloon, jail, post office and in later years the Grange Hall, the building always has been a busy place. Lack of proper care, plus buffeting by the elements and traffic hazards, spelled the doom of the frame structure.

Following the Aetna truck crash residents knew the building would be destroyed but official decision of the razing, or removal, was delayed pending the settlement. Details of the settlement were not learned.

Firm Names J. Moore Area Insurance Agent

Robert F. Horn, general agent of the Ohio State Life Insurance company today announced the appointment of John E. Moore as representative in the Mansfield area.

Moore was graduated from Mansfield Senior high school and attended Ashland college. He has completed the company's training course in life underwriting and took over his new position with the Mansfield agency today.

RITES SET — Funeral services for Pfc. Harold R. Arnold, 22, Mansfield Army man, were scheduled to be helt at 3 p. m. today at the Finefrock funeral home, in charge of Rev. John Gensel, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church. Graveside military services are in charge of McVey Post No. 16, American Legion, and burial will be in Memorial park. Pfc. Arnold died following an automobile accident in Oahu, Hawaii, Sept. 25.

Awarded Trip To 'Smokies'

Winners of the Isaly ice cream contest, for managers of stores serviced by the Mansfield plant, were treated to a paid week's vacation in the Smoky mountains last week. Their headquarters were at Hotel Mountain View in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

Those who left in the six car caravan last Sunday from Mansfield, were Paul Schrock, manager of the Park avenue west store, Frank Moller, manager of the Lexington avenue store, Homer Cox, former manager of the Main street store, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Skelton, store supervisor for the Mansfield district, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Davidson, city supervisor, and Ralph Treadway, manager of the sales room store.

Other towns represented on the trip were Ashland, Elyria, Medina, Lodi, Coshocton, Bellevue and Oberlin.

Next Week Will Be Good Time To Get Those Letters Written

Mansfielders will be reminded "it's time to write that letter" next week when the Mansfield post office, along with post offices all over the country, observed National Letter Writing week.

Postmaster Curtis L. Ford said he had received a notice from Postmaster General J. M. Donaldson announcing the dates for this year's observance of the annual event will be Oct. 16 to 22.

The slogan for this year's observance, "Don't Delay — Write Today," will be printed on small paper streamers which will be displayed by rural letter carriers on the side windows of their vehicles next week.

The Mansfield post office, and others all over the United States will display a poster showing a mother and her young daughter depositing letters in a post office letter drop.

Purpose of the week is to emphasize post offices' desire to give the best possible postal service and to encourage people to renew and retain contacts and friendships, which might otherwise be lost, by writing letters.

Tucker Defendants Now Seek Mistrial

CHICAGO — (AP) — The mail fraud trial of Preston Tucker and seven associates was in adjournment today pending a ruling on a defense motion to declare the case a mistrial.

Arguments on the motion were scheduled to be completed today before Federal Judge Walter LaBuy. The jury was excused yesterday as first arguments on the motion were made.

Police Break Up Auto Theft Ring

CINCINNATI — (INS) — Police theorized today they may have uncovered an auto theft ring with interstate connections as they announced the Saturday arrest of Mrs. Ruby Haas, 41, of Cincinnati, and John Gach, 34, of Detroit.

Details of the arrests were not made public until after Mrs. Haas was charged last night with taking a $2,900 auto from the Metropolitan Motor company, Aug. 15. The car has been recovered, police said. Officers said the arrests led to the recovery of an automobile registration book which contained 10 blank titles when it was stolen.

Meet Don Clark— Another "Do-it-yourself" American

Today he's his own boss!

Donald M. Clark of Dover, Delaware, doesn't believe anything need stop a man from making a go of what he wants to do! Three years ago he combined the two things he liked best—flying and farming—and set up for himself one of the first aerial crop-dusting services in Delaware. Savings from Army pay bought the first plane. Now through profits he has six planes, flown by fellow Air Force vets. So Don's "Flying Flit-Gun Squadron" is paying off . . . at the age of 25 he's his own boss . . . and he did it on his own!

☆ It's the American Spirit!

YOUR OWN MAIN STREET, too, has its Don Clarks. They're the folks who find their own "new frontiers" to develop, who carve out their own futures. They wouldn't have it any other way!

Yes, the "do-it-yourself spirit" is still as strong in America as ever. One proof: 78 million people are holders of life insurance. They hold it because they want to take care of their own on their own . . . to put children through college . . . for retirement . . . for financial emergencies.

Through life insurance they can achieve these things which so many Americans want. So the life insurance business has grown to match their needs. With more than 150,000 trained agents throughout the country, 584 separate life insurance companies compete aggressively to help Americans help themselves!

It's a Fact . . .

It's a fact that the service of the life insurance agent is essential . . . because:

- Families have different incomes, different numbers of children. Some want maximum protection now, some want to assure a college education for their children, some want to plan for retirement . . .
- Life insurance companies are constantly developing new kinds and combinations of policies to meet these and other individual needs.
- It takes the experience that only the trained agent has to help you plan your insurance so as to accomplish what you want.
- Today more than 150,000 life insurance agents are qualified through training to help the people of America get the most out of their life insurance.

To make sure that you have a life insurance plan best suited to your present family needs, consult your own agent. Life insurance is a service! And the help of your agent's skill and training is yours for the asking. *The Institute of Life Insurance—central source of information—60 E. 42nd St., New York 17, N. John T. Flynn Political Pamphlet Points Out Socialism Is Communism

NEW YORK—On second reading, I sincerely believe that John T. Flynn's new book, a small one called "The Road Ahead—America's Creeping Revolution" is one of the greatest political pamphlets in our history.

Flynn awakens me to the realization that socialism is communism and that therefore the "planners", as our socialists call themselves for disguise, are promoting the preparatory phases of communism.

As one who reads more political matter and more letters from thinking citizens than any but a few other Americans, I now realize that most of the nation does not yet understand that the program of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations is socialism.

Not merely for the satisfaction of belittling the man, I must say that Mr. Truman has neither the education to understand what a calamity he is trying to inflict on his country nor the character to relent if it just appears to him that the prosecution of his plans would re-elect him or his successor on the ticket of his party.

He is, as Bernard Baruch said, an ignorant man and, like many other bemused Democrats, he is advancing socialism because he thinks that socialism inflicted in doses in the guise of government services to the people and with a snarl that the opposition comes only from "special interests", will get their approval at the polls. He may be right.

It is bad enough that a party governing the United States should use the power of taxation to demolish our own form of government by deliberate impositions on the ignorance and selfishness of the people. But it is a new wrinkle in revolutions that this American government should actually wreak the same destruction in Great Britain by enabling a similar band of ruthless adventurers to wipe out the personal freedom of the people and reduce them to slavery to the state.

The American people surely do not realize that by the gifts of their money the Truman administration is maintaining in power the British equivalents of Henry Wallace, the late La Guardia, Marcantonio and Browder. Yet that is the fact. Foreign invaders who have tried to conquer and enslave the British by force have failed. The planners who are making use of Truman are accomplishing that result in the fantastic garb of generous friends.

"To understand what has happened in Britain," Flynn writes, "we must be clear about the use of words. We must know what socialism means in England. We continue to use the words 'communism' and 'socialism' as describing two different ideas. As a matter of fact, the words were interchangeable until the Russian revolution. Russia is a socialist country and Britain is a socialist country. Socialists differ about the method of achieving socialism, about the extent to which a country's industries should be nationalized and about the forms of administration. Lenin had become disgusted with the softer approach of the old social-democrats, a favorite name for socialist parties in Europe.

"We have got into the habit of using the word communism to describe the Russian organization," Flynn continues, "but that organization is a socialist one. The Russians call themselves socialists. Marx and Engels called themselves socialists. The Russians style their country the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

"The Road Ahead" is, however, a study of the British tragedy under socialism only for purposes of illustration. It is essentially a great alarm against the same disaster which now is accumulating in the United States. Flynn may be ignored by the people or frustrated by political bosses who are practical duplicates of the British destroyers. But I earnestly urge you to read him carefully—in class or circle preferably—and be warned.

Karsh, Master of Lens, Tells How He Got Some Famous 'Shots'

NEW YORK—Winston Churchill once grumbled to Yousuf Karsh, You can even make a roaring lion stand still to be photographed."

It was a reluctant tribute to a sensitive young Armenian who has become one of the greatest lens artists of our time. He has made everybody from Joan Crawford to Pope Pius "look at the birdie."

And after 15 years of stalking celebrities with his camera, Karsh has a matchless gallery of portraits.

But it has taken considerable doing to get them, for famous people often are more difficult to photograph than babies.

Churchill was a case in point. Marsh ambushed him in Ottawa in the house of commons just after Winston had made a stirring wartime address. Still flushed from his speech, the premier didn't want his picture taken. Reluctantly he paused before the camera and lit a long cigar.

When Karsh held out an ashtray, Churchill only clamped his jaw more firmly on his stogie. Karsh impulsively reached out, murmured "forgive me, sir," and plucked the cigar from the lips of the astounded statesman. Then he stepped back and clicked his camera on Churchill—a glowering lion at bay.

The result was an unforgettable portrait. It caught the spirit of besieged Britain in one indomitable face.

Karsh doesn't try to catch his subjects in odd poses.

"Why should I pick on a man when his fork's in his mouth?" he said.

"When I make a picture, I try to make it an embodiment of the man at the height of his life. I try to bring out the humanity in him, the judicious blending of the good and bad. And I'm not so interested in whether people like their pictures as in whether people who know them do."

Karsh says the most interesting man he ever photographed was Bernard Shaw. Shaw began his interview by remarking:

"What are you—Armenian? That's good. I have many good Armenian friends. But you know, of course, the only way to keep Armenians healthy and strong is to exterminate them once in a while."

★

THE LATE general John J. Pershing, rising from a sickbed for his last portrait, said, half-joking, half-wistful:

"Take a picture the American people will remember for a hundred years."

Karsh said one of his most difficult subjects was Lord Beaverbrook, because of his restless energy. But "the beaver" was so pleased with his portrait he exclaimed:

"You have immortalized me."

Karsh mentioned the incident to an acquaintance of Beaverbrook, and the man said:

"Karsh, are you sure that was a good idea.'

At 40 Karsh has photographed most of Europe's monarchs and a majority of the world's top statesmen, diplomats and military leaders.

"But the man whose portrait I would like most to make is Stalin," he said. "A good picture of Stalin might help to explain him to the world. He has never faced an unbiased camera."

Fliers Land After Setting New Mark

YUMA, Ariz. —(AP)— The new world's champion endurance fliers, Woody Jongeward and Bob Woodhouse, are resting at their homes today.

The wartime Navy pilots brought their four-place plane, "The City of Yuma," to a landing at the Yuma county airport yesterday afternoon at 3:33 p. m. (MST) after 1,124 hours and 18 minutes of continuous flying.

Since Aug. 24, when they took off from the smaller Marsh aviation field on the other side of town, they had flown 85,000 miles, the equivalent of three times around the world.

During their flight they used 9,000 gallons of gasoline and 200 quarts of oil.

Decision to terminate the flight—most of which was spent over Yuma to show the world this city's fine flying weather—came Sunday night when one of their two magnetoes burned out.

On hand to greet the new champions when they taxied to a stop on the runway at the Yuma county airport were their wives, parents, and the holders of the old record of 1,008 hours.

The former record holders, Dick Riedel and Bill Barris of Fullerton, Calif., landed in their record plane, "Sunkist Lady" about half an hour befor Jongeward brought "The City of Yuma" to a perfect landing.

When the fliers stepped from the cramped quarters of their plane, they found the answer to their big question, "Can we walk?"

They could. Unaided, they walked to an open car waiting for them.

Losses Top Average

Schultz Talks To Exchange Club

Fire losses per capita for Mansfield during the past seven years are four times greater than normal, William G. Schultz, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce fire prevention committee told Exchange club members yesterday.

Speaking at their wekly noon luncheon at the Mansfield-Leland hotel, Schultz said, the normal fire loss record per capita for a city the size of Mansfield is one dollar. Mansfield's seven-year average is four dollars.

Chief engineer for Lumbermens Mutual Insurance company, Schultz said much of the loss is due partly to the lack of fire ordinances, building codes and zoning ordinances.

"These laws have been a political football for 24 years. City council has been kicking them around since 1926. It's time Mansfield got interested in the matter and pressed council for some positive action. Most of the laws we have now are state, not city laws."

He cautioned Exchange club members to inspect their homes for overloaded fuses, defective furnaces, stoves and fireplaces and piles of combustible materials lying in closets or other obscure places.

"A lot of people feel secure if they have a fire extinguisher in the house, without bothering to find out if the extinguisher is a good one," he said. "There are many fly - by - night businesses which manufacture absolutely worthless devices. People should, when buying extinguishers, look for the mark of approval of the Underwriters Laboratories."

Reasons For Drive Outlined

Growth Calls For Higher Goal

Mansfield's 1949 Community Chest drive must produce 15 per cent more in funds this year that last if the various Red Feather agencies are to keep pace with their increased activities and memberships, 200 drive workers were told in two meetings Monday.

G. L. Draffan, chairman of special gifts division, was host to 47 members of his group for a luncheon at the Mansfield Leland hotel Monday noon while 144 industrial division workers attended a dinner and program last night for which the Westinghouse Electric corporation was host.

At the luncheon Draffan compared Mansfield's fund-raising drive with those of Jamestown, N. Y., and Ann Arbor, Mich., both of whom have populations comparable to Mansfield.

While Mansfield compares favorably with these two cities and numerous others in the population bracket in the number of small gifts, it falls down on the number and size of large gifts," he said.

Mansfield's total in the $100 and $500 classification last year amounted to $21,000 of 37 per cent while most of the other cities raised from 55 to 65 per cent of their entire goal through special gifts, he told his guests.

W. E. Slabaugh, president of the Community Chest, was one of the speakers at the dinner and program last night and explained why this year's drive figure is 15 per cent greater.

"In 1941, milk for school children was provided at cost of three cents a day, today it costs five cents; visiting nurses' calls cost $1.80 in 1941, while today the same call costs $3.03; we formerly paid the hospital $5.50 per day on a contracted rate, today we pay $10.77," Slabuagh said.

AGENCIES GROW

He cited the increases in membership of the agencies, particularly the Girl Scouts whose membership was 352 in 1941. Today there are 1300 registered Girl Scouts, as well as 400 adult members. The YMCA, too, has shown as marked increase over 627 members in 1941 as compared with 2,070 today, Slabaugh told the group.

J. H. Ashbaugh, vice president of Westinghouse, served as chairman of the dinner meeting which opened with group singing led by Major William Jones of the Salvation Army, accompanied at the piano by Maurice Stretch. The song parodies had been composed by Paul Endriss.

James McConnell, chairman of this year's drive, served as toastmaster for the evening and at the start of the program told the industrial workers that they would have to raise 55 per cent of the total goal if the drive is to succeed.

He then introduced the following drive workers who spoke briefly: Roy Waxler, CIO member who serves on the campaign committee; Marshall Seybold, co-chairman with Waxler of industrial division "B"; Howard Richards, CIO representative and co-chairman with Robert Myers of industrial division "A"; James Clark, chairman of the small industries divison; William Bell, chairman of the hospital bureau of the Community Chest; and W. Richard Tappan, vice president of the Tappan Stove company.

Prior to a talk by E. J. Hagerty, sales - training consultant, members of the Children's Choir of the Friendly House sang.

The evening concluded with the showing of the movie, "Your Red Feather Dollars in Action", a movie of local agencies and personnel, filmed by Paul Bush and Harry Delaney.

Mansfield's 1949 drive is scheduled to officially open next Monday morning at 8 o'clock when W. A. Brandenburg and the Brandenburg Chevrolet company are hosts for the kick-off rally in the ballroom of the Mansfield Leland hotel.

Invitations to the affair were mailed Monday to workers in all divisions of the drive, McConnell said.

When the Leaves Come Down

It's fall, and appetites are back in style! They are full and hearty this season, neatly tailored to withstand that touch of frost in the air. Get out the roaster, find your biggest pie-pan and polish up your coffee-maker. You'll be needing them all as autumn deepens into winter.

It's a pretty sure bet that your coffee-maker will be used more than any other utensil in your kitchen when the days grow shorter and the weather colder. After all, the aroma of fresh hot coffee seems as much a part of fall as the scent of burning leaves. This, then, is the time to consider the importance of coffee in your everyday living and to brush up on your coffee-making technique.

Whether you are serving a husky cold-weather breakfast to your family, putting togther a noon-time snack for yourself or boss at dinner, coffee plays a part. If it is as good as only good coffee can be, it can make the simplest meal into an occasion. It is worth your while to learn to make it properly.

No matter what method you use for brewing coffee, here are a few pointers to keep in mind. Never buy more than a week's supply of coffee at a time. Coffee that has been exposed to the air for longer than that length of time loses much of its savor. If you buy your coffee in the bean, try to buy it from a store which does enough business so you can be assured that the beans are fresh-roasted.

If you use a vacuum - type maker or a percolator, timing is important, too. For vacuum, keep it over low heat for about three minutes after the water has risen to the upper bowl.

Conscience Haunts Him

Confesses Drownings 14 Years Ago

MILWAUKEE — (INS) — A 26-year-old Milwaukee man today said he "felt much better" for admitting responsibility in the drowning of two boys whose deaths—recorded as accidental 14 years ago— had "haunted" him ever since.

Milwaukee police said Wallace E Skiba walked into police headquarters last night and said

"I've got a confession to make. I have to get it off my mind I caused two boys to drown."

Skiba told authorities he had been playing with two boys 10 or 12 years ago, and added

"I got mad and pushed one of them into the river He grabbed the other kid and pulled him in too."

Police records showed that Robert Vogel jr, 7 and Steven Muraszewski 8 were drowned in the Milwaukee river June 8 1935

Skiba 12 years old at the time said he had seen two kids fall in the river and no suspicion was ever directed at him

Haggard and unkempt he said yesterday he was "just a bum" and added

"I can't keep a job because my conscience bothers me. I've never been able to do anything right since it happened. It's ruined my life."

Police files showed Skiba has been arrested four times for drunkenness He was held without charge for questioning today by district attorney William J McCauley

Three 1948 Madison Rams are getting rave notices with the Bowling Green freshman football team, according to reports emanating from the northwestern part of the state. Madison captain Don Morris is a regular BeeGee tackle while Fred Durig is regarded by Coach Bruce Bellard as the fastest fullback. Bowling Green had 161 freshman out for the grid sport but kept only 25 Jim Brightbill, Ram end last year, also made the squad.

Joe Miller, the former Madison high football and basketball star received a broken nose the other day "coaching" the Ram reserve team.

Joe was trying to explain a hand-off play to a sub halfback and got into the quarterback slot to do the pivoting himself. He took the hand-back from center, pivoted and boom! The half back forgot to swerve. Miller who had to resign as Butler coach because of lack of a teaching certificate, is taking his practice teaching at Madison and will be there all during the first semester.

★

Bill Eccles, former Friendly House boxer, has been elected president of the freshman class at Southwestern University, Waxahachie, Texas. Eccles is studying for the ministry and has given up his amateur boxing career. He was at one time regarded as the most promising in the F-H stable.

★

Football record books report that at times referees have been known to slip and give college teams five downs But a new record was set at the Shelby-Madison reserve game Thursday when Shelby had seven downs and still couldn't make the ten yards. A long loss set the Whippets back and then after a couple of gains the official apparently looked at the wrong set of line sticks and signaled for a first. Already having had three downs, Shelby then tried three more and punted.

★

The Mansfield Rangers have the four youngest cheerleaders in town in a quartette of little stairsteps which did some impromptu yelling in front of the stands last week. They were the four daughters of Ranger Coach Jimmy Lymper.

★

One of the best "school spirit" stories we have heard in a long time concerns Plymouth Coach Dick McMullen and his injury-riddled football team. Injuries had cut the squad to 18 when a new candidate—Bud DeVeny—reported the other day.

"I've never played football" said the boy, "and I don't imagine I'm much good. But I hear you're pretty short-handed I thought maybe I could help."

McMullen says he's now one of the hardest workers on the squad.

Michigan State Coaching Great Dies In Philly

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — John Farrell Macklin, who in five years of coaching built up one of the best records in the football record books, died at his home in the Philadelphia suburbs yesterday. He was 65

Macklin was the founding father of big time football at Michigan state college, newly elected member of the big ten. The school named its stadium Macklin field in his honor.

Macklin coached Michigan State—then Michigan Agricultural college — from 1911 through 1915 and lost only three games He piloted the first Spartan team to defeat a University of Michigan eleven

That red letter day was in 1913 when Michigan State upset a team coached by the great fielding (Hurry Up) Yost by a 12 to 7 score.

Michigan came back to win in 1914 on a 60-yard dropkick, 3-0

But Macklin wound up his collegiate coaching career in 1915 with a 24-0 trounching of Michigan

After that, Macklin quit, "while still ahead"

Columbus Red Birds Acquire Houston Ace

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The Columbus Red Birds today acquired pitcher Mike Clark, 27-year-old right hander, from the Houston Buffs of the Texas league.

Clark, of Camden, N J, topped the Columbus, Ga. Sally Loop pitching staff this season with 18 wins against 8 losses for a percentage of .692.

Night Games Listed For 'Scrubs,' Juniors

The first of four night football sessions for Mansfield's junior high and reserve teams will be held Thursday at Madison field when the Little Rams play host to John Simpson at 7 p m

Simpson will be trying to bring its record to the 500 mark while the Madison team is still looking for its first victory—or defeat—of the season The Rams have tied Shelby and Mt Vernon while Simpson has beaten Shelby, tied Loudonville and lost to Wooster and Sandusky.

Past records, therefore, rate the teams about even but the Madison team has been riddled in the past two weeks by promotion of a half-dozen or so of its players to the varsity. Seven members of the reserve team played in the Rams game with Canton South last week and looked impressive enough that Coach Ennis Walker probably will not let them see any more reserve action.

Another night session for the junior highs will be held next Wednesday when a double-header will be played at Arlin field. The Madison reserves are to meet Johnny Appleseed followed by a game between Simpson and the Bellville reserves.

Both Madison and Arlin field have tilts booked for Oct. 26. The traditional Simpson-Appleseed battle will be held at the stadium while Madison reserves are to meet the Wooster seconds at Ram field

Johnny Appleseed also has a game booked for Thursday, playing the Shelby reserves at 4 p. m. at Stadium field

Notre Dame Takes Lead In College Grid Voting

NEW YORK —(AP)— No one section of the country dominates the college football picture today.

The second Associated Press nationwide poll of the season shows the midwest, led by Notre Dame, and the South each with three places among the top 10 teams. The far West had two, while the East and Southwest each had one.

Notre Dame, second in the first poll last week, moved to the fore but Army, thanks to its 21-7 conquest of Michigan on Saturday, made the most spectacular jump—from seventh to second

Michigan was spilled from first to seventh. The sports writers and sportscasters, who gave the Wolverines 34 first place votes last week, awarded them none this time. However, Michigan got enough other ballots to remain in the upper 10.

Notre Dame, victorious over Purdue Saturday, 35 12, this week, received 67 first place votes for 1,489 points. Army, with 58 firsts and 1,459, got within 30 points of the lead. The Cadets represent the only eastern threat for top honors.

The southwest is represented in third position by Oklahoma. There were no changes in the latest voting for third, fourth, fifth and sixth place, with Oklahoma being followed by Tulane, Minnesota and North Carolina

Back of no longer invincible Michigan in eighth place is Kentucky, whose 25-0 rout of Georgia Saturday boosted them from 15th. California, 10th behind Southern Methodist last week, moved past that idle team, the two swapping positions.

FALLS FROM TOP

Southern California was the only team to fall from the first 10, slipping from eighth to 12th By playing a 13-13 tie with Southern California, Ohio State remained at the top of the second 10, or 11th position in the poll, while the Trojans were close behind They had 181 points to Ohio States' 206.

With the exception of Michigan, all of the top 10 teams are unbeaten and untied.

The top 10 teams and their opponents this week follow:

Notre Dame (1) vs. Tulane (4); Army (2) vs Harvard; Oklahoma (3) vs. Kansas; Minnesota (5) vs Ohio State (11); North Carolina (6) vs Wake Forest, Michigan (7) vs Northwestern, Kentucky (8) vs. Citadel California (9) vs Southern California (12), and Southern Methodist (10) vs Rice.

Meske Added To Saturday's Wrestle Card

Dr. Ed Meske has been added to the double-barrelled pro wrestling program Saturday night at the Ashland road armory.

The Rubber city chiropractor will meet Lord Blears, the self-styled English nobleman, in one of the two one-hour bouts on the card. Meske last week defeated Hans Schnable in a 30-minute bout and then teamed with Tommy Martindale to win the tag match

Promoter Clete Kauffman announced the other half of the main go last Saturday. In this one. Gentleman Fred Bozic meets Cyclone Anaya, the junior heavyweight champion. Anaya risks his crown in Cleve-Talaber.

Bozic adopted the "Gentleman" moniker only a few weeks ago, apparently to imitate the fans as he is one of the roughest performers in the grunt and groan racket. Bozic now enters the ring in a top hat, white gloves and a velvet cape—all this with a distainful air

The 30-minute opener pits Billie Weidner, a former junior titleholder, against Farmer Tommy Marlin

TORONTO — (AP) — The national hockey league's 1948-49 all stars last night trimmed the Stanley cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-1, the game netting $17,261 for the NHL players' pension fund and $8,360 for Toronto charities.

Rams Lose Halfback For Season

Madison's injury-riddled football team received another blow yesterday when it was learned that Halfback Chet Sprague, who injured an ankle in last Saturday's game, probably would be out for the remainder of the season

Sprague was found to be suffering from contusions of the knee which will likely take several weeks to heal. Madison has only four games left, including a battle with undefeated Loudonville this Friday night at Loudonville.

The injury to Sprague leaves Senior, Norm Hughes and Freshman Don Wilson as the Rams only right halfbacks. Hughes, a veteran guard, started for the first time in the backfield last week but was soon shifted back into the line to bolster that department.

However. Coach Ennis Walker said last night that Hughes will run full-time in the backfield now Hughes was missing from practice yesterday with a pulled tendon in his ankle but will be all right for Friday

Walker also indicated that he will have at least ten members of the reserve team on the bench this week and will use them all if necessary Six sophomores and four freshmen saw action in last week's clash with Canton South and all but two were in a varsity game for the first time.

Ed Chelski, the big junior quarterback, returned to school after a wrist operation yesterday, and reported that he expects to be able to play basketball around the first of the year. A cast on his left arm, however, will prevent any more football this fall He was the basketball team's leading scorer last season.

Cincinnati Gets Into Pro Hockey

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Professional hockey, steadily widening its scope of operations, moves into another major American city tonight—and also into a new $3,000,000 arena

Cincinnati will be taking on a brand new sport tonight when a yet unnamed Queen city team meets the Indianapolis Capitals in one of the openers of the American league hockey season.

Senior High Plays Unbeaten 11 Friday

Mansfield Senior high school plays one of the two undefeated teams still on its schedule Friday night when it hosts Euclid in the Tyger ball yard.

The Euclid school has romped over four opponents and will present a big line and a rugged backfield against the Tyger crew which has won three straight after dropping its opener The Euclid aggregation boasts a line which averages 187 pounds, 15 more than the Tygers

Coach Augie Morningstar of the Bengals expects a tough game but "not any rougher than the game we had last week Euclid has good personnel"

Morningstar was speaking at the weekly football meeting of the Tyger Booster club last night at the high school. The Tyger coach gave his impressions of last week's victory over Warren Harding and a scouting report of Euclid

About the Warren game, Morningstar said, "Our defense was better but I'm glad that one's over."

★

League officials yesterday informed the Tyger athletic staff that the name of the circuit in which Senior high plays has been changed to the Ohio Scholastic conference It has been named the Northern Ohio Athletic conference. Senior high leads the OSC which also includes Massillon, Canton McKinley, Toledo Waite, Warren and Alliance.

★

Bill Daugherty of the booster club announced last night that fans will be able to get tickets on the Mansfield Tire special train to the Massillon game on Oct. 21. The train will leave Mansfield at 5:15 p. m. and start the return trip 30 minutes after the contest.

Both the champion and Valentino taper off training in the next few days.

Big 10 Battle Looming Over Pasadena Pact

CHICAGO — (AP) — The western conference generally favors renewal of its Rose Bowl pact with the Pacific coast but a battle on modification looms

One strong factor wants the three year clause revised or eliminated so the big 10 champion will automatically get the Pasadena trip

The present contract, which expires after the 1951 Rose Bowl game, prohibits any team going more than once in a three year period.

The school that wins two successive conference crowns could not be a repeated performer at Pasadena. Michigan won the title in 1947 and went to the Rose Bowl, but could not return although again winning in 1948 Runner-up Northwestern was selected.

Another group, which has support in George D. Stoddard, president of the University of Illinois, and Ted Payseur, Northwestern athletic director, believes the three-year clause is sound. Stoddard says that otherwise the Rose Bowl game would be "over-emphasized."

He and Payseur, as well as some other ranking officials, think that the clause reduces possibilities of recruiting by a dominating school that could keep up a high level of football by selling more Rose Bowl dreams to prospects Publicly, the only voice raised against a pact is that of James L. Morrill, president of the University of Minnesota. He did not want it in the first place and is campaigning against its renewal "with all my power."

He contends the Rose Bowl agreement greatly adds pressure on teams and coaches, has failed to better relations between the two conferences and has cut into big 10 prestige since the conference had previously always stood adamant to post season games

'Foreign' Colleges Break Even With Ohioans

Buckeye Gridders Split In 50 Contests

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Ohio college football teams—three week ends deep in a slam-bang season—are finding out-of-state competition tougher than a bride's pie crust.

The best Buckeye gridders have been able to do in 50 contests against pigskin power from over the border is break even.

Ohio colleges have won 24. Their foreign opponents have won 24. Two games have ended in deadlocks.

The Ohioans will get plenty of chances to capture the edge next week-end during a three-day, 25-game program featuring 12 games against out-of-state opposition.

Kentuckians, New Yorkers and West Virginians, who form the week-end opposition rate a slight edge just from the schedule. Seven of the 12 inter-state games are outside Ohio.

Kent State starts the shindig off Friday night, playing host to Central Michigan.

Ohio State really faces a chore Saturday in the giant Horseshoe stadium in Columbus. The Bucks meet the gargantuan Gophers of Minnesota.

That sets the keynote for the rest of the inter-state squabbles of Saturday: Hamilton (NY) at Oberlin; Bowling Green at Morris Harvey; Akron at Louisville (Ky) Youngstown at Niagara (NY); Miami at Pittsburgh; State College (Wilberforce) at Gambling (La); Hiram at Grove City (Pa); Bluffton at Olivet (Mich); Mississippi State at Cincinnati.

But Buckeyeland's gridders will have to do better than they did last week-end. The Ohioans managed to capture five decisions, lost five and tied one.

FIVE DROP OUT

In the firing five previously unbeaten untied teams did a humpty-dumpty. They included Ohio State, deadlocked by Southern California; Oberlin; Ashland, which bowed 28-25 to Findlay; Bowling Green and Akron.

That left only seven Ohio teams still maintaining the perfect pace. Xavier's musketeers kept in front of the pack with its fourth consecutive victory, this one 27-19 over Miami. It was the first Xavier triumph over Miami since 1903.

Other spotless squads: Western Reserve, Muskingum, Ohio University and Wilmington (3-0); Baldwin Wallace and Wooster (2-0).

The Ohio State - Minnesota game easily tops the program next week-end, but among the 25 scheduled contests are several capable of hiking spectator blood pressure.

The top feature games include Ohio University at Western Reserve in the only mid-American conference game. Both are undefeated, with Western Reserve sporting the state's second-best offense and Ohio U. one of the best of the defenses.

Others: Miami at Pittsburgh, Mississippi State at Cincinnati, John Carroll at Xavier and Toledo at Dayton.

Minnesota Club Fast And Great

COLUMBUS —(UP)—The Minnesota Gophers will be big as usual, inspired by the smell of far-off roses, and the fastest team Coach Bernie Bierman has had in years when they meet Ohio State here Saturday in what could be a decisive Big Ten battle.

Esco Sarkkinen, Ohio State scout who has watched the Gophers trample three consecutive teams, told the weekly press - radio football luncheon here yesterday that Minnesota has "everything."

But most important is the combination of speed and power which Bierman has finally installed in his team. For years now, Bierman has fielded some of the best lines in football, but the cry was always for more speed.

This time, he's got both, Sarkkinen pointed out.

The Minnesota offensive line weighs a total of 1538 pounds, and Ohio State coach Wes Fesler insists that some of the poundages listed for the players are "program weights."

"If tackle Leo Nomellini doesn't weigh more than 255 pounds, I'll eat him," Fesler laughed.

But Sarkkinen wasn't joking when he said the Minnesota line "is probably the most explosive around."

COME OUT STRAIGHT.

Minnesota uses a five-man line. And even with five men, Sarkkinen smiled, "it appeared to me that one of the men was slightly out of bounds." He added, however, there was no truth in the report that Minnesota's linemen were so big they have to come out of the dressing room door sideways.

Nomellini and Clayton Tonemaker, 246-pound center, were labeled "two potential all-Americans" by the Ohio State scout, who described them as the "Paul Bunyans of Minnesota football."

Major League Ball Teams Open Rebuilding Program

NEW YORK —(AP)— With the World Series now a part of baseball history, the major league teams continue building for 1950.

The reconstruction began in the final month of the season but the tight pennant races in both leagues and the series took the spotlight.

No team in either league is standing pat. They can't afford to

The newly crowned champion New York Yankees are looking for pitchers (who isn't?) A first baseman and long ball hitting outfielder.

The uncertainty of the physical well-being of Tommy Henrich, Joe DiMaggio and Johnny Mize necessitates the Yanks' search for a first baseman and an outfielder who can sock with authority.

Brooklyn's national league champion Dodgers also are on the prowl for pitchers but they hope to obtain that rare commodity from their vast minor league empire.

The Dodgers also want to chop off at least six members of their championship club in order to add some of their budding minor leaguers to their reserved list.

At present the Dodger reserve list totals 39, one less than the legal 40. Unless the Dodgers can jettison part of their present crew they stand to lose some green but valued timber in baseball's annual player draft next month. The Dodgers, along with the other clubs must submit their reserve list to commissioner A. B. Chandler by Oct. 16.

SIX TO GO?

Dodger president Branch Rickey held an informal press conference yesterday discussing future Dodger plans.

Rickey told the gathering he would like to get rid of at least a half dozen players. He refused to name the sextet but reports h . outfielders Marv Rackley, Dick Whitman, Mike McCormick, a third baseman and pitcher Ralph Branca as the most likely heads to roll.

Rickey started putting his house in order at the close of the season, selling five prize minor leaguers for an estimated $300,000 and seven players.

He sold outfielders Sam Jethroe and Bob Addis to the Boston Braves, first baseman Irv Noren to Washington and shortstop Chico Carrasquel to the Chicago White Sox.

Cincy Coach Levels Blast At Officials

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Sid Gillman, coach of the University of Cincinnati football team, has joined Frank Leahy of Notre Dame and several others in getting downright tough at grid officials.

Leahy recently said the officials who worked a Notre Dame-Washington game never would officiate in another contest for the Irish. Gillman said much the same thing yesterday about the officials who worked last Saturday's U. C. - Western Michigan game.

NOT JUSTIFIED

Speaking before the Bearcat Boosters club, Gillman objected principally to clipping penalties called on his boys and declare "not one x x x was justified."

He asserted the officials would not work another game involving U. C. this season. Cincinnati won the game, 27 to 6, but lost 100 yards by penalties.

The four officials were Ross Dean, referee; T. B. Lobach, umpire; Jerry Baker, head linesman, and Watson Jruzeski, field judge.

Grable Tops Honor Roll Barrage

Five honor roll scores were rolled in Mansfield bowling alleys last night but it was roly-poly Orlie Grable who again commanded top billing.
